

HOUSE PASSES WAR REVENUE MEASURE

Adopt Bill Carrying Seven Billion Dollars Without Dissenting Voice

LONDON VOTES PRESENT

Favorable Action By An Overwhelming Vote Is Assured In The Senate This Week

ADD FIVE AMENDMENTS

WASHINGTON, April 14.—With out a dissenting voice the house, amid plaudits of members and the galleries, late today passed the seven billion dollar war revenue authorization measure. One member, Representative London of New York the only Socialist in congress, voted "present."

Record 389 Votes for Bill

Owing to general pairs and absences only 329 votes were recorded for the bill, but both Democratic leader Kitchin and Republican leader Mann announced that all of their members would have voted affirmatively if they had been present. The formality of a roll call would have been dispensed with if several members who voted against the war resolution had not insisted upon having the opportunity of recording themselves in favor of providing money to carry on hostilities now that "the nation is at war."

The bill authorizes $5,000,000,000 in 1917, of which $2,000,000,000 will be loaned to entente countries and the issuance of treasury certificates for $3,000,000,000 ultimately to be met by increased taxation. Favorable action by an overwhelming vote is assured in the senate where the measure will be taken up Monday. It probably will be signed by the president by the middle of next week.

ADD FIVE AMENDMENTS Discussion in the house was confined chiefly to proposed amendments. Five of these were added, four of which were agreed to by the ways and means committee and none of which materially changed the interest of the bill's framers.

The two most important amendments drafted by Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin and accepted by the committee would confine the proposed $3,000,000,000 loan to countries at war with Germany and permit loans only during the war.

Others would prohibit the sale of the United States bonds at less than par, permit the purchase of foreign bonds at par, and limit the cost of disposing of the $5,000,000,000 worth of bonds to one tenth of one percent of their total.

A proposal by Representative Moore of Pennsylvania to limit the life of the bonds to fifty years, another by Representative Green of Iowa to create a congressional committee to act with the secretary of the treasury and the president in disposing of bonds and other proposed amendments similar to Green's were overwhelmingly defeated.

Doubts Sought Away Doubts as to the popularity of the proposed loan to the allies were swept away with the voting down 217 to 3 of a proposal by Representative Towner to strike out the $3,000,000,000 loan feature with a view to having it authorized later with provision for congressional participation in administering it. Mr. Towner was not opposed to the loan, but he drew the fire of the bill's supporters quite as much as if he had been.

Representative Rainey of Illinois ranking Democratic member of the ways and means committee, aroused by fervently denouncing the proposal and picturing France, a friend in need of the United States suffering while congress quibbled over terms of the loan. Representative Mann urged that this country could not help the allies with men or naval equipment now, but it could help with money and that it should do it.

COLONEL'S SON WITH CANADIAN FLIERS

MONTREAL, April 14.—Quentin Roosevelt, son of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, has joined the Canadian aviation corps to obtain instruction for service with an American army at the European front should such an expedition go abroad it was announced by Colonel Mulloy, one of the organizers of the tour of the war convention. He added former President Roosevelt probably would attend the convention's banquet here on May 24.

NAVY WANTS HUNDRED THOUSAND BY MAY 1

Day's Enlistment On Record

Daniels Hopes To Signalize Anniversary of Dewey's Victory at Manila With Announcement That One Thousand Have Been Enlisted.

Washington, April 14.—One hundred thousand men by May 1st, is the recruiting aim for the navy today by Secretary Daniels. He hopes to signalize the anniversary of Dewey's victory at Manila with the announcement that the enlisted personnel of the navy has reached that figure.

"When we closed the books last night," the secretary said, "a net gain of 1,366 men for the day was registered, the heaviest single day's enlistment on record in the navy department—not bad for Friday the 13th."

The day's enlistments brought the total enlisted strength of the active service, not including reserves or militia who are mobilized and on active duty, up to 68,927, an increase of 6,274 since the first of March. "This great increase is all the more gratifying because it has been accomplished without the least departure from the high standards heretofore required."

"There will be no modification of the physical, mental or moral qualifications of candidates as I confidently expect that the navy will be recruited up to the maximum strength allowed by law, in round numbers 100,000 men, by volunteers who can meet all tests."

"There is every indication that the present rate of enlistments will continue—probably increase and if so the navy will be able to celebrate the anniversary of Admiral Dewey's victory on May 1, with the enlistment for the first time in the history of the navy of 100,000 men."

GOVERNOR FURNISHES GUARDSMEN TOBACCO

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 14.—Governor Lowden, learning that there was a tobacco famine at Camp Lowden where the Sixth Illinois Infantry is quartered, today wrote out a personal check for fifty dollars and ordered that the men be furnished with the article in quantities. There was general rejoicing when the tobacco arrived at camp.

The governor this morning said he would probably be ready this afternoon to issue his proclamation asking bigger crops on Illinois farms and appealing to men to engage in farm labor in order to meet the threatened food shortage incident to the war.

SHOWS CAPACITY OF MUNITIONS PLANTS

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The navy department made public today bids received from 25 munitions makers on an order from 1,578,000 shells of all calibers, the figures bringing out sharply the enormous capacity of munition plants.

Eleven bidders each offered to absorb the entire order for 1,170,000 one pound projectiles and within a few weeks to begin deliveries at the rate of 100,000 shells a month. There were six separate proposals covering the entire order for three thousand fourteen inch shells. The bids show also a capacity to produce 20,000 six-inch shells, 2,500 fourteen inch and about the same number of 12-inch shells a month after the machinery is set in motion.

OFFERS REWARD FOR SINKING SUBMARINE

Washington, April 14.—A reward of $5,000 to the captain and crew of the first American merchant ship to destroy a hostile submarine was offered today by Benjamin and Anderson Gratz of St. Louis in a telegram to Secretary Daniels. The Secretary thanked the senders for the spirit of their offer, but added that he felt money rewards for such deeds were out of place.

RECENT REPORTS SEEM ANTICIPATORY

Meeting of German and Russian Socialists May, However, Be Held Soon

RUSS CROSS GERMANY

While in Stockholm Russ Pacifists Issue Statement Attacking England

PLAN PEACE CONGRESS

STOCKHOLM, April 14.—Recent reports concerning a meeting of Russian and German Socialists in Stockholm to further the agitation for peace now appear to have been anticipatory. Such a meeting, however, may be held in the near future.

The fact that Russian peace agitators have been permitted to cross Germany from Switzerland seems to indicate that the German government at least does not desire to throw any obstacles in the way of such a movement. The party which arrived here Friday included thirty Russians who came thru Germany in a sealed coach.

Statement Attacks England

While in Stockholm the Russians issued a statement attacking England, accusing it of trying to destroy one of the Russian revolution's results—political amnesty—and of refusing to permit Russian revolutionists abroad, who oppose war, to return to Russia.

It was disclosed in the statement that the Russians while in Switzerland had been in communication with French Socialists and German Socialists. The visitors were met at the Stockholm station by Mayor Lindhagan and some of the Swedish radical Socialists with whom they held a conference during the day. Information concerning the conference was denied.

Win Promise of Support

The Dagens Nyheter, however, declares that it learns that Nikolai Lenin, the Russian radical Socialist leader, undertook the trip to head an energetic peace movement and he and his friends already have won the promise of support from the German radicals for a congress in Stockholm. Some French Socialists also approved of the plan but English Socialists flatly refused to take part.

The Dagens Nyheter says M. Lenin plans to be back in Stockholm from Petrograd within a fortnight at the head of Russian peace delegation. He is said to wish universal peace if it is obtainable, but if the western powers, particularly England reject the idea, he will endeavor to obtain a separate peace between Russian and Germany. The Russian party is now on its way to Petrograd.

Pacifists in Minority

Petrograd, April 14.—Via London.—The pacifist element is distinctly in the minority in the congress of district councils of workers and soldiers' delegates which is now in session here. The discussions thus far show two distinct currents of opinion.

The first which appears to be supported by an overwhelming majority is favorable to vigorous prosecution of the war and support of the provisional government. The second group, composed chiefly of advanced Socialists, favors not only renunciation of all projects of annexation and indemnities but also steps looking to an early conclusion of peace.

At the same time this group is inviting the congress to express its distrust of the provisional government.

ANTI-WAR TREATISE CAUSES SUSPENSION

CHICAGO, April 14.—Oscar M. Heath, a teacher in one of the public high schools of Chicago, has been suspended by Jacob M. Loeb, president of the school board, on account of the issuance of an anti-war treatise in which the teacher attacks the policy of the American government, states that the war is for mercenary gain and not for humanity or liberty and that a league between the newspapers and financiers is responsible for the entrance of the United States. The suspended teacher said he was having 1,000 of the pamphlets printed for issuance today and asserted that he would be at his place in the schools Monday and would fight the matter in the courts if necessary to retain his position.

MAY CHANGE NAME OF RUSSIAN CAPITAL

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Lens and St. Quentin at either end of the front on which the British have been pressing back the Germans, now are almost within the grasp of the advancing forces.

Smashing British blows against the German positions north and south of Lens have held their effect and the British now hold the suburban towns of Levein and Cite St. Pierre and are reported to be firing heavy explosive shells into the mining center of northern France.

With the French holding fast south of St. Quentin and less than a mile from its border, Field Marshal Haig's men followed up their capture of Fayet a mile northwest of the town by driving the German defenders back to within a few hundred yards of St. Quentin on the north. There has been violent fighting along the important sectors of the front between Lens and St. Quentin and the British everywhere have either made gains in the German defenses or have held back German attacks. South of Lens and north of the river Scarpe the troops of Field Marshal Haig have continued to plunge forward and have reached points two or three miles east of Vimy Ridge.

South of the Scarpe the Germans have fought stubbornly and have rushed reserve forces into the fray in an effort to hold back the oncoming British but the British maintained the captured positions everywhere, London says.

Serious losses were inflicted on the Germans Northwest of St. Quentin the British also have captured the village of Gricourt a mile north of Fayet. The Germans lost heavily in killed and wounded London reports in the fighting around Fayet. The British here captured 400 prisoners.

Aerial fighting continues on a large scale on the western front and London reports that twelve British machines failed to return after engaging the Germans behind the German lines. Four German machines were brought down by British aviators and six others were driven down. Berlin records that the entente lost twenty four airplanes on Friday. South of St. Quentin the French maintain their destructive fire against the German positions and the Germans are replying. French troops made some progress on the plateau northeast of Quiney Basse south of the Oise. Violent cannonading has marked the hostilities at other important sectors along the front held by the French.

LOWDEN FINISHES DRAFT OF PROCLAMATION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 14.—Governor Lowden finished the first draft of his food proclamation this afternoon and will give it out for publication tomorrow afternoon, he stated late today. The document will set forth the threatened shortage of food in Illinois and will appeal to agriculturists to raise the biggest crops possible.

The labor famine in agricultural pursuits will appear to be dealt with. Governor Lowden today said school authorities had responded generally to the suggestion that high school boys be released from class in order to work on farms and that they be allowed to go without loss of credits.

"In the smaller towns in the state the boys are for the most part more or less familiar with farm conditions and farm work," said the governor. "These young fellows can be of great help in raising crops this summer and the sooner they get to work the better."

MAKE DESPERATE APPEALS FOR LOAN

AMSTERDAM, April 14.—Via London.—Desperate appeals are being made in the German newspapers to the public to subscribe to the sixth war loan which closes at 1 o'clock in the afternoon April 16. Some phrases used by the papers are: "Give a straight answer to Wilson," "America now an open instead of a secret enemy," "How little Wilson knows about the German nation and German character!" "Pay up."

MAY ASK EARLIER EFFECTIVE DATE

WASHINGTON, April 14.—To meet heavy withdrawals of distilled spirits from bonded warehouses in anticipation of a raise in the tax rate in the forthcoming war revenue bill, congress probably will be asked to make the effective date of the next tax rate earlier than the passage of the measure. Thus the government would obtain increased revenue on whiskey which otherwise could not be secured.

SHIPPING BOARD TO FORM CORPORATION

Will Mark Beginning of Work to Build Fleet of Wooden Cargo Carriers

BOARD TO HOLD STOCK

Private Yards Will Build Ships On a Basis In Most Instances of 10 Percent Profit

MAY FINANCE YARDS

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The administration's program for building a vast fleet of wooden cargo ships to transport supplies to the allies and thus defeat the German submarine campaign will be put definitely under way Monday when the shipping board will form a fifty million dollar corporation to build and operate the vessels.

The corporation will be organized under the laws of the District of Columbia and its entire stock will be held by the shipping board.

Private shipyards will construct the ships on a standardized plan adopted by the shipping board on a basis in most instances of 10 percent profit. Some contracts will be let for specified sums. The board probably will finance some yards, although private capital already is offering millions for construction of the vessels.

Major General Goethals, who at the direction of President Wilson has consented to supervise building of the ships, will come to Washington to take charge of the work as soon as he can arrange to give over a task of building New Jersey highways.

F. A. Eustace, a Boston mining engineer, who with F. Huntington Clark, a New York engineer, conceived the idea of a wooden ship fleet, probably will be associated with him.

Will Use German Ships

The 700,000 tons of German shipping taken over by the government with the declaration of war undoubtedly will be put under the corporation as will the Austrian ships now in custody of the United States. The general opinion is that the German and Austrian owner will be paid for their use during the war and for the ships themselves if they are lost or are retained.

The story of how the wooden ship-building plan grew from an idea conceived simultaneously by two mining engineers until it has taken a place in the forefront of America's war policy reveals that Yankee inventive genius and ingenuity were as ready to meet the present emergency as at any time of national stress in the past.

After Mr. Eustace and Mr. Clark had been called to Washington by Chairman Denman of the shipping board, and the board decided to take up the plan, Mr. Eustace decided to interest General Goethals and went to place the situation before him. The canal builder immediately seized on the plan as the one way by which to aid the allies in defeating Germany. Then General Goethals was told the board wished him to take charge of the work. Reluctant at first to leave his post in New Jersey, the general finally was convinced the nation needed him.

Reasons for Choosing Goethals. General Goethals was chosen to head the work, it was explained to night, because of his capacity, his German descent and the loyalty of American citizens of Teutonic extraction and because he is considered the one man in the United States most offensive to Germany.

Germany, it has been said, has never forgiven the man who constructed the canal when German experts said it could not be accomplished.

WILSON PLANS PROGRAM FOR WAR CONFERENCES

Subjects To Be Discussed Will Cover Wide Range

Question of Agreement Under Which Conflicts Can Be Avoided in Future and Guarantees of Right of Self-government Sure To Find Way Into Conferences.

Washington, April 14.—President Wilson personally began today the formulation of a definite program for the great war conferences to begin here next week with official representatives of Great Britain and France. The subjects to be discussed are expected to extend further than material co-operation between the United States and the entente allies. The president believes the greatest result which can come from the world war is an agreement under which conflicts can be avoided in the future and guarantees of the right of self-government to every nation large or small and this ideal is certain to find its way into the conferences.

In welcoming the foreign delegations headed by Arthur J. Balfour, foreign minister of Great Britain, and Rene Viviani, minister of justice of France, the president is expected to point to the aspirations of the United States. The character of the delegations coming here from France and Great Britain have generally been taken as an indication that they will be empowered to discuss broad questions of policy as well as to outline to the American government war plans of the entente allies and aid the United States in avoiding the mistakes made by them in the past.

Possible means of assisting Russia and thus building up the newest Democratic government in the war are receiving earnest consideration from the administration. It was admitted at the state department that serious attention is being given to a suggestion that a commission from the United States be sent to Petrograd. Representatives of the state department, the army and the navy, will leave Washington probably tomorrow for an unnamed port to welcome the British visitors.

AUTHORIZE NEW UNITS OF GUARD

War Department Compelled to Reverse Previous Ruling

CROWDER GIVES OPINION

Decision Opens Door to Expansion of Guard To More Than 600,000 On War Footing

TO FILL UP OLD UNITS

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Against the judgement of military experts as to the wise course in the present emergency the war department was compelled to reverse a previous ruling today and announce that under existing law states have the right to organize new units of the national guard. This opens the door to expansion of the existing guard force of about 125,000 men to 400,000 at peace strength or more than 600,000 on war footing. The department had planned to draft into federal service only existing units of the guards plus such auxiliary troops as might be needed. Twenty states, among them Iowa, have applied for permission to raise new regiments, however, and Secretary Baker ordered a new study of the national defense act to determine whether three acceptance of new units set in the act was mandatory. Judge Advocate General Crowder took this view and his ruling was approved by the secretary.

To Fill Existing Units First

An effort to prevent immediate organization of new regiments was made simultaneously, however. The governors were asked to see that existing units were filled to peace strength before any new ones were organized. Shortage of equipment prevents the immediate acceptance of new regiments as the department has not had appropriations for reserve supplies. There are not enough supplies on hand to provide even for existing units at war strength.

If the state forces were raised to full strength the present total of 10,000 of national guard officers would have to be provided to more than 30,000 to provide the officer personnel for the full twelve guard divisions contemplated by the national defense act.

The war department has felt disinclined to add in this way to its already heavy burden in finding and training officers for the war times armies that are to be raised.

Clears Way for Army Bills

The senate military committee today cleared the way for taking up the war army legislation Monday by completing consideration of the department amendments to the present national defense act.

After a plea today by Senator Hughes to double the pay of enlisted men, the committee decided to ask the war department for suggestions regarding increases from $15 a month to $20, $25, and $30.

Virtually all changes in the national defense law suggested by the army general staff were accepted by the committee and a bill incorporating them will be reported to the senate Monday. The amendments include authority to increase the general staff to 92 members, to increase the number of machine gun companies in each army division from ten to twenty three and to increase the number of non-commissioned officers in each army unit.

Include "Separation" Allowances

"Separation" allowances for soldiers' dependents in time of war, recommended by the general staff in lieu of the $50 monthly allowance given by congress to dependents of national guardsmen during the Mexican border service. These included in the bill. These provide that during war, dependents of enlisted men shall be paid $15 monthly. If soldiers were killed in action, from wounds or disease, the dependents would receive an amount equal to their pay for six months and, if in aviation service a year's pay. The committee is divided on the selective draft proposal with a majority, however, understood to favor the administration.

WEATHER INDICATIONS AND TEMPERATURES

Illinois: Increasing cloudiness Sunday, probably followed by rain Tuesday and south portions; Monday rain in south, rain or snow in north portion; colder in west and south portions.

MARRIED MEN NOT YET NEEDED

The government order discharging married men from army service at the present time is a wise one. At this stage of the war military service should be performed by unmarried men who have no dependent relatives. The time may come later on when the services of married men and older men than those now enlisted will be necessary, but the future must take care of itself in this regard. The government also looks at the matter from a business point of view, for under existing laws it would be obligatory upon the government to provide a certain amount of support for the dependent families of soldiers in the service.

BILLIONS FOR DEFENSE

The $7,000,000,000 bond issue passed congress yesterday without opposition and with no show of excitement. From all appearances it might have been a measure carrying an appropriation of $5,000 instead of the stupendous sum of $7,000,000,000. There were congressmen vigorously opposed to the war declaration, but now that the country is at war they are ready to go the limit.

By this measure President Wilson and Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo have the authority to become the greatest money lenders in history, for they are expected to use this sum in the way which seems most advisable for aiding the allies.

RECRUITS FOR COMPANY B

The vacancies caused by the retirement of married men from Co. B are going to be hard to fill in Jacksonville unless the interest in enlistment is greatly stimulated. It has taken several weeks of patient effort on the part of the recruiting officers to secure even the limited number of enlistments that have been made in the company. A number of these men have come from territory surrounding Morgan county.

The situation gives point to the need for universal military training, which is urged forcibly in the recent letter issued by Thomas Robins, secretary of the naval consulting board, in which he says:

"We only value that which has cost us something. Let every young man give but his little share of time and work to the United States and he will become a true patriot. The plan proposed is so simple, so small in cost and so immeasurably great in value that it should not be necessary for a single man to raise his voice in its favor. Even if no emergency were now apparent, universal training should be adopted without delay for the unifying effect that it would bring to our people, and even if we could see in it no such spiritual benefit it should be adopted to straighten the backs and fill out the chests of our slouching boys and teach them the first principles of hygiene."

THE ALLIES AS ADVISORS

When the representatives of England and France reach Washington the resulting war conference will be one of the most important ever held. Necessarily the greatest secrecy is being kept about the time of arrival of these foreign representatives, but it is known that they are coming soon and for the purpose of both giving and receiving information. In this way the U. S. will get inside facts which will aid them in avoiding mistakes made by the allies. Every one of the warring nations can now look back upon errors made and so the allies are in a way which will be very helpful to the U. S. in the present situation.

While we are properly termed an unprepared nation, certainly much has been accomplished in the past few months, as evidenced by the appointment of able representatives to the council of national defense and the naming of Herbert C. Hoover to direct the food board activities, Colonel Goethals to supervise the ship-building program, and Samuel Gompers to head the committee on labor. Leading railroad presidents of the country will direct transportation affairs during the war. These things have been well done, but much work remains, and these French and English leaders, with the hardened experience of more than two years of actual warfare, can aid us greatly.

INTERESTING WAR FACTS

The following facts about the great war are taken from an exchange.

"The United States is the eleventh nation to enter the fight against Germany."

"We are the fifteenth nation in the war."

"American entered the fight on the last day of the 154th week of the war."

"All of our wars have been declared in April, except the War of 1812, which started in June."

"This is the seventh war of the United States."

"It is nineteen years this month since we declared war upon Spain."

"This is the first war in which America and England will fight on the same side."

War followed sixty four days after Germany's note breaking her pledge to the United States.

The so-called eight 'great powers' are now at war.

"This will be our first war against a combination of countries."

"The first, third, fourth, fifth sixth and seventh strongest navies are ranged against Germany. The German navy stands second, and the Austrian eighth."

"The United States brings 112 million people against the central empires."

BEFORE BATTLE

Loosed anger of the hosts,
Of foes in armor near us,
Who seek to reach our coasts,
Now citizens are soldiers,
And every door is barred;
Tense is the strain of waiting
For all are standing guard.

Ere yet has come the battle,
Ere crimson drops are shed,
We pray once more the Father
For hope in man has fled.
To love divinely we're trusting
To open the eyes of men,
To speak to earth in darkness
"Let there be light," again.
—S. A. Hughes.

THE WORK OF THE HUMAN SOCIETY

Last year a number of our citizens recognizing the need in this community of an organization for the protection of domestic animals and the preservation of our native birds organized and secured a charter from the state of Illinois for the Morgan County Humane Society. It immediately took active steps to secure humane treatment for horses and for months employed an officer who has regularly inspected the work horses around town. In his work he has had the active cooperation of many team owners and has accomplished much in bettering the conditions of many horses without at any time resorting to criminal prosecution. It is proposed to keep an officer permanently on this work, at least, until those using horses learn that animals should be treated humanely.

Soon after the society was organized, I remember took up the matter of abating the abominable nuisance and preventing the use of firearms and airguns upon the streets and also the protection of bird life. Some of the boys in town were rather persistent in the use of airguns out, except in a few cases, a timely warning has been sufficient to well nigh break up the practice of annoying our native birds. The result of this campaign is seen this spring in the unusually large number of robins and other native birds which may be seen on our lawns and in our trees.

Heretofore these birds have been the marks for many small boys who annoyed them until they went elsewhere. Much work remains to be done along the lines of protecting our native birds.

The society proposes to extend its work and is asking the support of the public. Its officers and several of its members have given much time to the work and a number of our citizens have contributed liberally to its support. The society cannot employ and pay an officer without funds nor can it fulfill its purpose without the support of those citizens who are interested in its work.

The society will always look into complaints regarding maltreatment of domestic animals and the destruction of our native birds. Checks may be made payable to Mr. W. A. Jenkinson, President.

Economy Can be Overdone.

This does not mean, of course, that the wage earner or the man of moderate means must be profligate in expenditure, but it does apply to the wealthy or those usually termed as comfortably fixed. "The poor man or the man who must use strict economy in order to make his receipts and expenditures match, does not need to be told by the wealthy or the society leaders that he must live economically, especially at a time when prices for necessities are abnormally high. You can think about the business houses in Jacksonville that would suffer losses if the idea were strictly adhered to of every man, woman and child limiting themselves to the purchase of absolute necessities. When you consider the question from this viewpoint you can readily see that but a small per cent of the business men dealing in commodities absolutely necessary. No one disputes that the price for almost everything is on a record level, but when purchases are being made freely and the people are spending money, it is in circulation and the majority of people get some of it. If there is none in circulation it is sure that nobody is going to profit."

"It is the same with the nation as it is with a city. With all the people economizing and in every possible way holding down their living expenses, U. S. business affairs would come almost to a standstill. Under present conditions, with no purchases being made abroad and with our people all producing as much as possible and then buying freely of each other's products, the greatest prosperity the country has ever known exists, and it will in all likelihood continue for some time to come if the same policies are followed. Our situation is just the reverse of European countries, for we are keeping our own money at home and vast sums are pouring in from abroad."

M. F. DUNLAP THINKS HIGH PRICES WILL CONTINUE

Banker Believes Shortage is Cause of Grain and Livestock Levels—Governmental Regulation is Not Likely Except at High Figure—Another View on Preaching Economy.

Asked Saturday as to his opinion about the continuance of the present high prices for grain and livestock, M. F. Dunlap, said that he could see no possibility at the present time of any lower figures. "These prices," said Mr. Dunlap, "are not the result of manipulation but because of an actual shortage which exists. When the demand is greater than the supply, the upward tendency of market prices is sure."

Referring to the possibility of governmental regulation, Mr. Dunlap expressed the opinion that at this time such fixing of prices for farm products is not likely, but if such fixing is done the prices will be certain to be high. "It would be beneficial to farming interests," he said, "if people knew for a certainty just what action is to be taken, if any. The government cannot expect the farmer to greatly increase his acreage of any grain if there is a possibility of the government stepping in and fixing a price below market levels. The same thing is true with livestock. The feeder hesitates to invest in $1.40 and $1.50 corn to feed to stock if there is a likelihood of the government lowering the price. Uncertainty is a distinct disadvantage to the farmer and stock man, if the government is going to fix the price range it would be beneficial to the farmer to know it, and if the government does not intend to take any stand in such affairs, knowledge of that fact would also help."

Government Regulation.

"I have no special information on this subject, from what I have observed I do not look for government regulation of grain or livestock prices. Records show that in the years of lean crops the dollar result of the crops has been greater than in years of plenty. So with these facts recorded it will be difficult to get farmers to greatly increase their production if there is a prospect that the government is going to put down prices to any figures much below the present market."

Mr. Dunlap takes issue with the idea that prominent social leaders in Washington are benefitting the country by announcing that they will cut down social functions and otherwise lead "the simple life." Mr. Dunlap's thought is that if this principle is applied literally by men and women of all classes and the strict economy practiced, people limiting their purchases only to the necessities, that business stagnation would quickly result. He declares that in the history of this country the times when people are straining every nerve to economize and are pinching here and there to hold down expenses, that those are the hardest times thru which business passes.

Economy Can be Overdone.

This does not mean, of course, that the wage earner or the man of moderate means must be profligate in expenditure, but it does apply to the wealthy or those usually termed as comfortably fixed. "The poor man or the man who must use strict economy in order to make his receipts and expenditures match, does not need to be told by the wealthy or the society leaders that he must live economically, especially at a time when prices for necessities are abnormally high. You can think about the business houses in Jacksonville that would suffer losses if the idea were strictly adhered to of every man, woman and child limiting themselves to the purchase of absolute necessities. When you consider the question from this viewpoint you can readily see that but a small per cent of the business men dealing in commodities absolutely necessary. No one disputes that the price for almost everything is on a record level, but when purchases are being made freely and the people are spending money, it is in circulation and the majority of people get some of it. If there is none in circulation it is sure that nobody is going to profit."

"It is the same with the nation as it is with a city. With all the people economizing and in every possible way holding down their living expenses, U. ### COMMENT ON WORK OF GREAT ITALIAN HARPIS

From Daily Tribune, Webster City, Iowa

Signor Salvini an Italian with Venice as his home, has been in America about two years and is a student of Italian and French schools for the harp. Although a young man in his early twenties his master touch on the harp strings awakened the melodious echoes in a marvelous manner. It seemed to his listeners that he literally plucked with his sensitive hands volumes of musical sounds from the harp chords. His hands were unusually large and strong for those of a harpist and the wonderful harp upon which he played was built for him by Wurflitzer, known to be a master maker of harps. Its value is $5,000 and the instrument was a gift to the young composer harpist after Herr Wurflitzer heard him play.

HISTORY OF MEDICINE

The Morgan County Medical Society Will Be Fifty Years Old In May.

Anyone who has information about any of the early doctors of this county, or of any Medical Meetings or Societies prior to 1866, will confer a favor by sending it to Dr. Walter Frank, secretary of the Morgan County Medical Society, 209 Ayers Bank Building, and it will be edited for this column.

THE AUGUST MEETING

At the August Meeting Dr. David Prince made an exhibit of a "Crossed Humerus" with remarks on the pathology and treatment of the condition. Dr. Wm. S. Edgar reported a case of "Compound fracture of the leg treated by Malgaigne's Spike." We wonder how many of our present day doctors know what "Malgaigne's Spike" is and how it is used. It is said to have been frequently used in the Civil War and it was during his army service that Dr. Edgar who was evidently one of our progressive doctors first had experience with the method. The regular order of the day was by Dr. Henry Jones on "Atimonia et Potassii Tartrates in uterine inertia." The statement of this title seems to have been quite characteristic of the eastern college training and dignified and scholarly bearing of the author who at the same time seems to have stood high with his colleagues. This is the second time he has appeared on the program at the meetings of the young society by special invitation. His three hour scientific dissertation like the four hour session of his fellow townsman of the Methodist church the Rev. Peter Akers did not interfere with his popularity as they would have done today. The subject was liberally discussed by most of the members present and some doctor may have been led to change his method of treatment but if so the minutes are silent on the point. Medical meetings even today are likely to have many expressions of opinion with but few changes in practical application of methods.

Just what happened in the discussion on this particular day to induce Dr. M. M. L. Reed to "Move to postpone the publication of the minutes" is not stated in the record but Dr. David Prince was on his feet at once with an amendment that "The minutes be published" which was carried. In those days it was the custom of the society to have the minutes published in the local papers just as for so many years Dr. H. W. Milligan secretary of the Literary Union published each week a synopsis of the meetings (no names mentioned) the only difference being that the minutes of the meetings of the doctors gave the names of all taking part. Many of the papers were published in the Medical Journals of Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville or Cincinnati. It may have been that Dr. Reed and others thought certain members were getting too much personal notoriety out of the publication. In later years in Jacksonville there were sporadic evidences of jealousy among certain doctors but there was probably no such base sentiment among the pioneers working shoulder to shoulder without selfishness for the common good.

ALBERTO SALVI, HARPISIT, HERE MONDAY, APRIL 30

Concert at Congregational Church by Famous Venetian Musician — Wonderful Single-Handed Work a Revelation to Artists and Critics.

Signor Alberto Salvi, Venetian Harpist, was educated in the Naples Conservatory, where he completed an eight years' course in five years, winning first prize. The harp playing of Sig. Salvi is a revelation; he overcomes seemingly insurmountable difficulties with greatest ease, playing passages single-handed that are tremendously hard of accomplishment by high-class harpists using both hands.

Artists, critics and musicians generally who have heard Sig. Salvi are amazed at the power, brilliancy, tone quality, finesse and artistic temperament displayed. He uses an especially large-sized Wuritzer harp, made for him for concert work.

Congregational church, Monday, April 30th. Admission $1.00. Student tickets 75 cents. Seats on sale now at Brown's Music Store.

MORTUARY

Kinney

Daniel Kinney died at his home three miles northwest of Franklin Saturday morning at 7 o'clock after an illness of several months' duration. Mr. Kinney was stricken with pneumonia in the early winter and complications ensued which prolonged this illness. He had almost recovered a short time ago when another attack came which proved too much for his already weakened constitution. Deceased was born in the Franklin vicinity forty-seven years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kinney. He was married to Miss Della Plummer who, with two sons, William and Clarence Kinney, survives him. Mr. Kinney leaves three brothers: Martin Kinney of Jacksonville, James Kinney of Franklin, and Michael Kinney of Macoupin county. A number of nephews and nieces survive.

The funeral will be held Monday forenoon at 10 o'clock at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Franklin, in charge of the Rev. A. Smith, pastor of the parish. Burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

Fentress

R. V. Fentress, a former resident of this city, passed away recently at his home in LaCrosse, Wis., according to word received here by E. C. Carpenter and family. ## FARM NOTES

Good Prices for Stock.

R. W. Emerson of Sinclair precinct recently sold a bunch of stock hogs at 15 cents a pound and a bunch of ordinary sheep for $15.00 each. The animals were all raised by him on his farm and were well bred.

Still Another New Record

If the trend of affairs continues in the same direction as has characterized the market for live hogs, it is only a question of time, if not already that the old saying, "That there is nothing new under the sun," will become obsolete.

The latest new thing in this line of the trade was the sale this morning of 145 hogs weighing 49,850 lbs., or an average of 343 lbs. at a new record price of $16.50 and they brought the owner $6,740.25. Two loads of 109 hogs of this drove were shipped by F. E. Drury of Orleans, Ind. They averaged 286 pounds and brought $5,148.00. The other 36 head came from J. F. Tomlin of Pleasant Plains, Ill., and the entire drove sold to McMurray & Johnson for Schenck Sons & Co. of Wheeling, W. Va.

Another new record posted in the market here today was the total amount of money for a single load of hogs. C. G. Winn, of Griggsville, Ill., was the lucky shipper. His consignment included 70 hogs weighing 18,320 lbs., that sold at $16.35 and two hogs weighing 670 pounds at $15.75, making a total of $3,100.84. They were bought by Swift & Company and go to the North Packing & Provision Company of Cambridge, Mass.—Indianapolis Livestock Journal.

Wheat Prospects in Kansas

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Middleton, who have been making an extended stay at Abilene, Kans., are at their home northwest of the city in the Ebenezer neighborhood for a few weeks' time. Mr. Middleton said yesterday that conditions are very prosperous in Kansas but only in part of the state is the wheat crop outlook at all favorable. From Kansas City to Abilene on the line of the Union Pacific railroad fields look well and many of them give promise of two- or five bushels to the acre. This condition prevails quite generally in the east part of the state, but it is said that farther west the crop is an absolute failure.

Mr. Andras Makes Big Profit From Alfalfa

John C. Andras of Manchester has furnished good proof that alfalfa can be made a very profitable crop in Morgan county. So far as known he is the only grower who has been shipping alfalfa to other states. He was in Jacksonville yesterday and while here deposited a check for $252.49, representing the sale of one car of alfalfa in St. Louis. The price was $24 a ton. Mr. Andras has 120 acres of alfalfa and he figures that in three cuttings the past year that the average return was 4 1/2 tons to the acre. Much of this hay was used on the Andras farm but four or five car loads have been shipped and two more car loads will be available for shipment. Before planting the alfalfa three years ago Mr. Andras applied four tons of limestone, one ton of Tennessee rock phosphate and one thousand pounds of bone meal to each acre of land. Since that time he has not applied any fertilizer.

Asked for his opinion about market conditions, Mr. Andras said that months ago he predicted that the price of corn would go up to $1.50 per bushel before another crop is raised and he now believes it will not be many weeks until this prediction is fulfilled. Mr. Andras has between eight and ten thousand bushels of corn on hand but practically all of this will be needed for feeding stock now on the farm. He has 150 head of hogs averaging about 125 pounds and he is now roughing them along until they can be turned on clover. Then he expects to give them all the corn they will eat. He is feeding only a little corn now as gains are so much more rapid when clover and corn are fed in combination. In this way with present market conditions he figures that the corn will readily bring $2 a bushel, marketed thru the hogs. Mr. Andras also has two car loads of calves which will soon go on feed and they will probably be marketed as baby beef in September.

Talking about wheat conditions, Mr. Andras expressed the view that wheat hereabouts has deteriorated ten per cent in the past two weeks because of the lack of sufficient moisture. In this connection it is not out of place to say that altho Mr. Andras is now near the eighty mark, he has lost none of his mentality or his physical strength.

The writer sends an interesting wife of the Commissioner of Imperial

The calendar has a cut of one of

The letter was written on Febru-

The Duplex ALCAZAR Provides Comfort, Convenience and Economy

It Does More—It Saves Time

—ALL THE YEAR 'ROUND

A single Coal and Wood Range is wasteful except for winter use. A simple Gas Range is wasteful except for summer use. To combine the two is ideal,
and meets the demand of the Twentieth Century Home for "Comfort", "Convenience", "Economy"—All the year 'round.

The Duplex Alcazar is a single range, only 43 inches long, in which Gas and Coal or Wood can be used at the same time, or separately, just as desired.
It is just the range for your home.

There is nothing to lift out or interchange. Simply "pull or push a lever" at lower right hand side of range and oven is ready for use for either fuel.
It is as easy as turning on or off the water faucet in a kitchen sink.
It is a range that is complete in itself and provides real "Convenience". It is not a makeshift with dirty parts to pull out and leave standing around the kitchen. Such ranges are nuisances, and add worry to the troubles of neat housekeepers and the practical housekeeper will not put up with it.
She does not want to be a mechanic. Her aim is to lighten —not to complicate her kitchen work. She is seeking the happiness of her home and to that end the Duplex Alcazar is in a class of its own. It constantly grows in favor, as the Twentieth Century Housewife comes to know the necessity of reserving her strength through "Comfort" and "Convenience" and the wisdom of practical "Economy."

REPORT ON WORKINGS OF METHODS OF SEARCH

System Employed in Case of Neutral Ships Assures Minimum Disturbance of Trade—Fast Methods Impracticable.

London, March. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The government committee appointed to inquire "whether any avoidable delay is caused by the methods adopted for dealing with shipping" in exercising the belligerent right of search and inspection, has just made its report. The general conclusion is: "We have been unable to discover that, consistently with the effective exercise of belligerent rights, there is any avoidable delay caused by the existing methods of dealing with ships and cargoes brought into port under the Order in Council of March 11, 1915, and we have no suggestions to offer for the improvement of these methods."

The report tells just how the machinery of search and inspection works in the case of neutral ships. Most of this machinery is in the hands of the "Admiralty Committee for the Division of Ships in War Time." This committee is notified promptly of particulars concerning the arriving ships and of the quantity and nature of the cargo to be discharged or examined, and assigns the ship to the most suitable port. "The system though elaborate and complicated, in practice works smoothly," says the report of the in- in the fact that methods of search sanctioned by usage in the past are now impracticable, and that the evidence which, in the shape of documents carried on the ships, the neutral shipowner and trader were required to provide, has been robbed by changed conditions of much of its value. Other evidence or guarantees, therefore, must be forthcoming if the rights of the belligerent are to be preserved.

"The system has been so constructed as to furnish facilities by which, if he is disposed to avail himself of them, the neutral can provide such evidence or guarantees, and so assured of the minimum disturbance of his trade. "It was not to be expected that a system which has developed as the necessity arose should have worked well from the beginning. Until it was complete there were undoubtedly stages at which delay took place. The congestion at the ports of discharge, which is a persistent source of delay, is consequent upon a state of war. So long as that congestion exists its effects must be felt by ships brought in under Orders in Council as by all others; but they are dealt with in their turn and given at least equal facilities."

—TWELVE YEAR OLD BOY.

Lloyd Harrison, twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harrison, 410 Hardin avenue, is suffering from a badly lacerated arm, suffered Saturday forenoon when a vicious bull dog attacked him when the boy was near the corner of East College street and South Clay avenue. The dog is the property of Mr. Parks, formerly proprietor of the skating rink here, and during Mr. Parks' absence from the city has been kept at the home of Samuel Boston, 358 East College street. The dog caught the boy on the left arm and left a deep wound just above the wrist. Dr. G. H. Stacy was called to attend young Harrison, who Saturday evening was said to be resting comfortably. Although the dog is not feared, the animal will be kept for the customary ten-day period of observation.

GOOD GOLF PROSPECTS AT PARK THIS YEAR

Course Has Been Greatly Improved by Grading South of the Lake—Committee Will Insist on Observance of the Rules

With the completion Saturday of the grading south of the lake and the recent re-marking of the course, the golf links at Nichols park have been greatly improved and the season opens with every indication that golf this year will be more popular than ever with Jacksonville people. The new course, laid out by the committee Saturday morning, is approximately two thousand yards in length. All washes and rough places south of the lake have been filled and the ground has been well rolled.

Outline of Course
From tee No. 1 the course will be the same as before. From No. 2 a short pitch of 199 yards will take the ball over the lake and onto the newly graded ground. The course will continue as follows:

No. 3—A pitch over the lake to the east to a point north and east of the Gun Club building, distance 168 yards.

No. 4—South and east 200 yards. No. 5—Due west 200 yards to a point just south and west of the baseball pavilion.

No. 6—North and east 229 yards to a spot almost due north of the baseball pavilion. From here all players are expected to carry the ball to a point near the C & A right of way and just south of the lake, from which they will play across the lake, 180 yards, to No. 7, which is located just south of the pavilion. A short walk east from the band stand to the 8th tee will then be made where the player will send the ball due north 225 yards to the 8th hole. Players will then walk south and west to No. 9, a new tee, the same green being used for No. 9 as at present. The drive to the 9th hole is 300 yards.

Want Full Course Used
The committee from the park board and the committee from the golf association desire that all players play the full course, and in their respective positions as they make the start from No. 1. Players may "play thru" others as set forth in the rules of golf. Those not desiring to take the water hazard must carry the ball across but no player will be permitted to play only on the north side of the lake.

As the links are open to public use the committee think that plain justice makes necessary a strict observance of the rules.

Penalties for Violation
The player will be warned at the first infraction. The second will bring a ten-day suspension from the privileges of the course and the third offense will be punished by suspension for the season. Any infraction of the rules should be reported to T. J. Brennan, representing the park board.

G. W. Patterson has been employed as greens keeper and will begin his duties Monday. He will wear a star and will be invested with police powers. Any suggestion as to the conduct of the course or regarding improvements may be addressed to Mr. Brennan, F. E. Farrell, J. W. Hubble, and Dr. George Dinsmore are the golf committee and Mr. Brennan and Mrs. Abe Wehl, the park board representatives.

Doctors Stand Amazed at Power of Bon-Opto to Make Weak Eyes Strong---According to Dr. Lewis

Guaranteed to Strengthen Eyesight 50%
In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa. Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes rested by this remarkable prescription and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses, and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for 15 days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overworked, tired eyes which induced fierce headaches. I have worn glasses for several years both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the type writing on the machine before me. I can do both now and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by the use of this prescription. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and let it dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly from the start and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If your eyes bother you even a little it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Yes, the Bon-Opto prescription is truly a wonderful eye remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were strained through overwork or mist glasses. I can highly recommend it in case of weak, watery, aching, smarting, itching, burning eyes, red lids, blurred vision or for eyes inflamed from exposure to smoke, sun, dust or wind. It is one of the very best preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Bon-Opto, referred to above, is not a patent medicine or a secret remedy. It is an ethical preparation, the formula being printed on the package. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is sold in this city by Lee E. Allcott and other druggists.

THE VITAL DIFFERENCE Is That Between the Cost of GASOLINE and KEROSENE

We Want You to Investigate the Merits of the Titan 10-20 I. H. Co. Tractor

What makes the difference in tractors—the difference that makes you decide for or against certain makes? You guard against impractical design, defective workmanship and materials—you prove by demonstration the machine's capacity for work. But the vital difference is a hidden one. It can only be brought out in actual service. It is the kind of fuel the tractor operates on day after day and what it costs you. Gasoline was once a cheap source of power for the farm. There was little demand for it, and its price was low. Now it is more in demand than any other oil fuel, and its price is prohibitive for farm power. Kerosene is cheap because it is produced in larger quantities than gasoline, and the demand for it is comparatively small. Kerosene, then, is the economical fuel for the tractor. Not every tractor will do good work on kerosene, however. That is why manufacturers tell you that there is no saving in using kerosene—that it is dirty and inefficient.

Don't take any salesman's word that this tractor will operate on kerosene. Make him put it in writing in the order which you sign. If he is unwilling to do this, look out! There is only one way to be sure that you are getting a successful kerosene tractor and that is, to get a written guarantee, for such an agreement binds the manufacturer by law to make good.

THE ART OF FLYING

Easy to Master if Patience and Common Sense Are Used.

THREE METHODS OF TEACHING

One is the Pioneer French System, Another the Dual Control System and a Combination of the Two Which is Used For Training War Pilots.

Almost every one has seen an aeroplane in flight, but with the present day layman the interest is centered more on the airman than on the machine with which he does the flying. Naturally, writes J. G. Gilpatrick in Popular Mechanics, the first question is, "How did he learn to fly?"

Flying is not hard to learn. The essential assets are common sense and patience. Nothing else is required. If a man has common sense he will realize how safe flying has become and he will enjoy a reasonable self confidence. If he is patient he will not hurry through his course. A slipshod knowledge of flying is more dangerous than none at all. By taking things easy a month or six weeks spent at a good aviation school will make a raw layman into a fairly well trained flier, and it will give him the best sport of his entire lifetime.

Of necessity the pioneers of aviation taught themselves the then difficult and dangerous art, and all airmen in the world today owe their flying ability to the Wrights, Bleriot and others of the men who went before. There are flying today a number of airmen who entered the game in the early stages and who by luck and perseverance mastered the art with very little outside assistance. These men were without more than a rudimentary idea of the very principles of flight and later realized the dangers they had undergone. They knew that the average person could scarcely survive a self administered course in almanacship. Aviation had come to stay, and a number of firms started regular schools in which the knowledge of the earlier experiments could be disseminated among the ever growing numbers of enthusiasts.

There are three basic methods of teaching flying—the so called French system, the dual control system and a combination of the two largely used today for training war pilots.

The French system was the first in general use and consisted in teaching oneself to fly by the constant criticism, advice and demonstration of a competent pilot instructor. The pupil was given a heavy, low powered and worn-out machine incapable of flying—usually called a "taxi"—and was given practice in running the machine on the ground. In this way he accustomed himself to the speed of an aeroplane, the incessant roar of the motor and the use of the controls. When the pupil could run down the field in a perfectly straight line and do it consistently he was given "hops."

"Hops" were made on a machine but slightly better than the taxi and consisted in making short jumps across the field at a height of four to five feet. This was the most trying part of the entire course, as at this point smashes were most likely to happen. If the pupil misjudged his height from the ground or in his enthusiasm tried to stretch his hop into a sustained flight the ending was usually disastrous. But if he went about matters sensibly he would soon be promoted to "straights," or flights in a straight line, about half a mile long. The usual height in this work was twenty-five or thirty feet from the ground.

The dual control system teaches wholly by demonstration and practice in actual air work. A high powered machine fitted with duplicate controls is used, and the pupil starts by riding with the instructor and watching him work. By simply resting his hands and feet on the controls the novice can feel the amount of motion necessary to handle the machine. Gradually the machine is given over to the pupil, the pilot being ever on the alert to correct his mistakes and to demonstrate new points. As the pupil becomes more and more skillful the pilot requires harder evolutions.

The dual control system of teaching is somewhat hard on the instructor, as it often necessitates five and six hours in the air every day for weeks at a time. The average time in the air required to train a pupil by this method is 400 minutes, which is divided into flights of twenty minutes each. It is now used in this country by all the government schools and the private firms.

The combination or English system consists of equal parts of ground work alone and air work with the instructor. As the pupil becomes more advanced the ground work is gradually dispensed with and air work—still with the instructor—substituted. Finally the pupil flies alone and after some practice is sent for his license.

Using Up the Straw.

In effect a bulletin of the United States department of agriculture asks why the American farmer cannot put straw to the same use as it is put by the European farmer. In Europe the farmer knows as well as the American farmer that straw is not liked by stock, but instead of burning it or otherwise wasting it the European farmer chops it up, mixes it with beet, manure, or other feeds and makes it so palatable that it can be fed to good advantage.

James C. Dunn, owner of the Cleveland team, has invested $100,000 in new players since he took over the Indians a year ago.

The defeat of the strong Boston Arena hockey team at the hands of the Pittsburgh A. A. shows the Smoky City skaters to be one of the best hockey aggregations in the country.

If present plans are carried out George Chip will again battle Al McCoy in Brooklyn in the same ring where McCoy leaped into fame by knocking out Chip in one round.

"Young Lajole," namesake of the celebrated ball player, is coming along at a rapid pace in the boxing game. Both the past timer and the young battler are natives of Rhode Island.

Not much chance for either Carl Morris or Fred Fulton to meet Jess Willard in a championship bout after the recent "fly" the pair of huskies pulled off in New York.

National league teams play like world beaters against American league outfits in the Spring, but in the Fall series the old league past-timers seem to be shy of the "go-and-trip-on" stuff.

Milwaukee boxing fans are looking forward to some real fireworks next week when Ritchie Mitchell and Bennie Leonard meet in the Cream City. When tuned up to concert pitch these two birds can battle like real fighters.

Young Ahearn, the Brooklyn boxer, seems to have seen his best days as a fighter. Ever since his knock-out in one round by Mike Gibbons in St. Paul a little over a year ago Ahearn has not appeared as the same battler.

TUNNEL DAMAGE SUIT CONCLUDED IN CHICAGO

City Must Pay $100,000 to Owners of Unity Office Building—Trial in Superior Court Lasted Four Weeks.

In the superior court in Chicago before Judge Scanlan recently the Unity Safety Deposit Co. secured a verdict of $100,000 damages from the city of Chicago. The company, in which M. F. Dunlap of this city is the controlling factor, brought suit thru their attorneys, Tolman, Redfield & Sexton, to recover for damages done the Unity office building as the result of the permission given by the city to the Illinois Tunnel Co. to run its tunnel thru the streets adjoining the building. After this underground work had been done the Unity building settled to some extent and the walls in some rooms showed cracks and in others windows and doors would not move in the regular manner.

Did Not Protect Building. It was shown by the evidence presented in behalf of the Unity Safety Deposit Co. that the tunnel construction company had not taken the necessary steps to guard against damage to the building. On the opposite side of the alleyway and adjoining the Unity building, which is sixteen stories high, is another building eight stories high. In the case of this latter building the company used jacks and braces to avoid settling but took no measures to protect the larger and heavier Unity building.

It was the contention of the city that because the top of the tunnel is twenty feet below the bottom of the foundation of the Unity building that the damage to the building was not occasioned by the tunnel construction. They declared that the twenty feet of hard clay between the tunnel and the foundation formed an immovable mass and that the tunnel therefore did not affect the foundation.

A suit had previously been brought by the Unity Safety Deposit Co. against the tunnel company in the U. S. circuit court of appeals and after some proceedings there the case was compromised for $50,000 damages. It was the claim of the city in the suit just closed that the company had recovered all that was due thru the suit settled by compromise, whereas the attorneys for the safety deposit company set forth that the amount of damages agreed upon in that suit by no means compensated the company for the losses sustained by injuries to the building.

It was because the city granted the permit to the company and failed to give any notice to the safety deposit company to protect their property that the legal points and the evidence were in favor of the company.

The trial has been grinding along in the superior court for almost four weeks and Mr. Dunlap has been in attendance nearly all of that time.

Y. M. C. A. LACKS $1100 TO COMPLETE FUND

Teams Will Continue Work This Week in Endeavor to Keep Institution Open.

The report made at the Y. M. C. A. last night showed that the teams have secured $2,900.50 of the $4,000 needed for the support of the association during the current year. The pledges reported by the teams were as follows:

Boys and boy scouts	$ 60.50
Ladies	112.50
Carl Weber	159.50
E. H. Gray	229.50
Ralph I. Dunlap	219.00
E. B. Spink	664.50
Rev. W. E. Spooner	1254.00

Total $2,900.50

This sum is about $1,100 less than the amount required and it was determined to continue the campaign during the present week with the expectation that within a few days the total will be available. Various members of the teams have prospects upon which they are confident they can realize very soon.

Those in charge of the campaign feel that the responses thus far have been quite liberal and they realize that many dollars have been given, which will mean genuine sacrifice on the part of the donors. The work of the association is important to the community and the effort for the contributions is wholly justified by the resulting good. Ladies of the Christa church have served the luncheons during the past week in a very satisfactory manner.

RECRUITS WILL JOIN COMPANY B TODAY

Lieut. Dickson and Squad Receive Orders to Begin Guard Duty—Married Men are Discharged from the Service.

Lieut. Harrison Jackson has received orders to take the recruits secured the past two weeks and place them in company B. The order also instructs the discharge of all members of the company who have families dependent on them.

Lieut. Dickson will leave on the Alton at 9:45 this morning unless he is held up on account of transportation. The recruits number seventeen who with the lieutenant make eighteen men. Thru some misunderstanding transportation was sent for only fourteen men.

The men who will go with Lieut. Dickson today are the following: Owen Draper, Mike Carroll, William Bradshaw, Arthur Creech, James Cully, Ralph Douglas, John Hall, Russell Leidy, Albert Metcalf, Lawrence McDonald, William Prewitt, Floyd Smith, Owen Smith, Elmer Daniel, John Pate, John Buck and Willis Dewese.

Married Men Relieved from Duty
The orders received by Lieut. Dickson relative to married men having families dependent upon them follows:

"It is desired that you take immediate steps towards the discharging from the national guard now in service, or under call for federal service, in your department all enlisted men who have families dependent upon them for support, and who would be entitled to the benefits provided by the acts of congress approved Aug. 29 and Sept. 8, 1916, (General Orders No. 47, War Department, 1916.) whether such enlisted men desire to be discharged or not."

"It is further desired that in case of future receptions of national guard organizations into federal service under a call from the president, steps be taken by you before the initial muster, to determine what enlisted men have families dependent upon them for support and entitled to the benefits of the acts of congress approved Aug. 29 and Sept. 8, 1916, (General Orders No. 47, War Department, 1916.) and that those enlisted men who establish the fact that they have dependent families be not accepted for federal service and be not included in the initial muster."

"For the purposes set forth above the provisions of Bulletin 20, War Department, 1916, are hereby modified to authorize department commanders to discharge all grades of enlisted men, the department commanders to be held responsible that no enlisted man who may subsequently be able to claim a dependent family and apply for their support is retained in the federal service, or accepted upon initial muster of organization into federal service."

Oldest Men in Company to Go.
The order will mean the retirement of between twenty and twenty-five men from company B, two of whom are non-commissioned officers. It will take many of the oldest men in the company in point of service and will necessitate further recruiting to reach the number of men in the company when it left here.

In speaking of recruiting Saturday evening Lieut. Dickson said that he could not understand conditions in Jacksonville and vicinity. There are hundreds of young men right in Jacksonville who would make excellent soldiers who have no employment. However, they show no inclination to enlist.

It does not speak well for the young men of the community to hold back in the present crisis. Conditions are vastly different to those that prevailed at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. Then so many men offered their services that the government was compelled to refuse further enlistments.

One could go into the various billiard rooms of the city almost any evening and find enough young men of military age to make up a full company. Many of these young men do not work and make their home with their parents without paying any board.

One wonders what these young men expect to do in case of actual war when the country may need every available man. It is hard to see how any husky man under thirty-five years with any red blood in his veins could hold back and have to go to the front thru conscription.

During the days of the war of the rebellion it was a disgrace to be drafted into the service. Conscription is practically the same thing. If a young man would only stop a moment and think of the sacrifices that other boys made to make this country possible perhaps he would not hesitate to offer his services. What it seems is needed at the present time is to form a few classes in history and again bring to the minds of the boys and young men of the nation the glorious history of the country and the sacrifices made by our forefathers.

Jacksonville with all the splendid traditions of past must not fail at this time. It is to be hoped that when recruiting is again begun in Jacksonville that the young men will respond and that we can show that we have not only enough for one company but for a half dozen if they are needed.

ASBURY CHURCH

There will be Sunday school at 2 p. m. A full attendance is urged. Preaching by the pastor, W. W. Theobald, at 3 p. m. The subject will be "Intensive Farming in the Christian Life."

THE MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.

The Morcan County Monument association met in regular session yesterday at 9 a. m. with President McDougall in the chair and heard the minutes of the last regular meeting by Secretary Rammelkamp. The ever urgent and pressing question of the location of the monument was discussed and as always the earnest desire was to have it in the center of the public square. The action of the city council on that subject will be awaited with great anxiety. The secretary was directed to write Gov. Lowden requesting him to ask the state art commission to supply the association with the benefit of their advice regarding the style and general plan of the proposed structure.

President McDougall reported the receipt of letters from several contractors and architects—desiring to submit plans and bids as soon as the association was ready to receive them. One representative of such an establishment was present and spoke informally but withdrew without any action, the association was unable to give any definite statement regarding the location which would have a bearing on the design.

Several members said they had conferred with a number from the country and without an exception every person approached wanted the monument in the center of the square and the old soldiers felt especially urgent on the subject.

RETURN FROM SOUTH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hembrough of southwest of the city have returned home after a sojourn of six weeks at Hot Springs, Ark. They report that here was some cold and rainy weather at the winter resort but despite this had a most enjoyable and beneficial trip. Mr. Hembrough states that in the southern part of the state, near St. Louis, the most of the farmers are plowing up their wheat fields, which he thinks a mistake asserting that within a few weeks, with some rain and warm weather, these same fields would have presented an entirely different aspect from what they do at the present time.

WILL ENLIST IN THE NAVY.

Clarence Spaulding, a student at Illinois college and who is a clerk for Frank Byrns during leisure time out of school, has decided to enlist in the navy. He expects to go to Chicago today to join Henry Ricks who was a schoolmate with him in the high school, and proceed to his post of duty. They will take with them the best wishes of many friends here.

The fire department was called to the residence of Oscar Gilpin at 644 North Sandy street at 8:50 o'clock Saturday morning. The roof had caught fire from a defective flue. The damage was small. There was no insurance. The property is owned by Frank Gorman and is in bad repair.

Austin B. Green of Asbury vicinity was a city caller yesterday.

REVIVAL OF INTEREST IN ENGLISH WATERWAYS

Increased Freight Rates Will Cause Big Impetus in Canal Traffic—Far Behind Germany and France.

London, April.—England is about to witness a revival of interest in its waterways system through the action of the government in commanding all canals in the country. The canal system has been allowed to fall into disuse since 1906 when the railways made it impossible for them to compete successfully. With the increased freight rates the advocates of the waterways system see a big increase in canal traffic.

Sir Maurice Fitzmaurice, a consulting engineer of wide experience in government service, has been appointed chairman of a committee designated by the board of Trade, to inquire into the inland waterways of the country and to see where they can be improved for the benefit of the nation.

In the United Kingdom there are about 4,500 miles of navigable waterways. Of these some 2,000 in England form one interconnecting whole, but owing to their haphazard method of construction, no one single type of boat can navigate the whole of them. Boats and locks are not standardized. Neither is there centralization of the control, the canals being under different companies.

Railways now own more than 1,300 miles of the canal system, including most of the important links. As showing the influence of the railways on the inland waterways it is stated that no waterborne traffic can enter or leave the rich manufacturing district of Birmingham without passing over water owned by the railway company.

Advocates of inland waterways in England say they realize that this country is far behind Germany and France in utilizing its canals but that they hope the lessons taught by the war, through high freight rates and congestion on the railroads, will result in a big impetus in canal construction in the days to follow peace.

BELIEVE THEY ARE STILL AT FRONT.

Rome, April.—Some of the Austrian soldiers taken prisoner at the Austro-Italian front, intelligence officers report, refuse to believe they are in Italy, asserting that they have never left the Russian front. When convinced they say they were so frequently moved from one place to another, generally at night, that they must have been brought to the Italian front without being aware of it.

In the Sporting World

Minneapolis, Minn., April.—Carl Wallace, track captain at the University of Minnesota, and Wingate Anderson, assistant manager of athletics, will take examinations in Chicago for lieutenantcies in the United States marine corps.

Minneapolis, Minn., April.—The University of Minnesota's position relative to the abandonment of spring athletics because of the German situation will be decided at an early meeting of the board of regents, according to Fred B. Snyder, president of the board. Thus far, the board has not considered cancelling the sporting program. Mr. Snyder said.

Columbus, O., April.—The Board of Trustees of Ohio State University, has decided not to interfere with the university sport program "unless the international situation indicates a need for such action." The board empowered the faculty to order the cessation of athletics at any time.

Iowa City, Iowa, April.—Unless concerted action is taken by all universities in the "Big Nine," the University of Iowa will not drop its spring athletic schedule because of the war, B. J. Lambert, chairman of the athletic board announced.

Columbus, O., April.—Joseph B. Tinker, president and manager of the Columbus club of the American Association, is ready to sink every penny he has to keep the team going if the United States becomes seriously involved in war.

"If it comes to a show down," Tinker said, "we'll go as far as we can and then close our park and pay the rent out of our pockets."

Tinker does not believe that the present situation will cause attendance in the American Association to decline.

Cincinnati, O., April.—Sammy Sandow, a Cincinnati bantamweight boxer, wants to become a soldier but he's having a hard time trying to enlist. Sandow offered his services at a recruiting station, but was informed that he was too short. Then he bought a pair of shoes with high heels and sought another office. All went well until the examining physician asked him to remove his shoes.

St. Louis, Mo., April.—Because of the war situation, the St. Louis soccer team has cancelled its scheduled trip to Sweden for a series of games. The eleven was to have been made up of local players. Winton Barker, president of the Missouri State Football association, had completed all negotiations for the trip.

Cleveland, April.—Sergeant D. W. Dennis, U. S. A., drill master of the Cleveland Americans, commands the respect of every player on the squad. The reason: Dennis weighs 220 pounds, is six feet, two inches tall and has the reputation of being able to whip his weight in wild cats.

Cincinnati, O., April.—Cincinnati athletes are forming a regiment as a unit of the Ohio National Guard. Harry B. Lewis, physical director at the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A., captain of a company, First Ohio Infantry, is at the head of the movement.

Waxahachie, Texas, April.—Before Harry Tuthill, coach of the Detroit Americans started north with the team, he told friends here that military drills are not harmful to ball players. The Detroit squad was at first, divided on the question but the players later became more enthusiastic. They quickly mastered the simple drills, and the more complicated evolutions which they will go through at ball parks every afternoon, were more to their liking.

"The players do not get enough of the exercises to tie up their muscles," said Tuthill. "The setting up exercises are excellent. It is my hope that we have them every spring."

Columbia, Mo., April.—The date for the fourteenth annual state interscholastic contests at the University of Missouri has been set for May 5. The high and preparatory schools will be divided into three classes, the high schools being differentiated as to enrollment under or above 350 and the preparatory institutions forming the third group. The meet will be preceded on Friday by the Farmers Fair, the annual "stunt" of the agricultural college students and on Saturday morning by the dual meet between Ames, Iowa State College and the university track teams.

Cleveland, April.—There will be six powerful teams in the American league pennant drive in the opinion of Lee Fohl, manager of the Cleveland club. Cleveland, he believes, will be among the six. Fohl does not think that Washington and Philadelphia will cut much figure.

"Making predictions as to how the teams will finish is not in my line and this is one year in which it would be foolish for me to start anything," Fohl said. "I think, however, that it will be one of the hardest fought campaigns in the history of the league."

"My reason for believing that Cleveland will be up in the race is because the team looks so much stronger than a year ago. I am not an alibi manufacturer. We had accidents in 1916. So did the other teams."

"We have a strong pitching staff. Merion is going to cause a surprise by his comeback and I am most emphatic in saying that I am banking on Joe Wood to hold up his end of the pitching."

"I shall make no effort to say how the teams will finish. Six powerful teams are in the circuit and every game should be hard fought. I am counting out only Philadelphia and Washington. I fail to see where Washington has strengthened. In fact, I think the club has been weakened by the failure of Harper's arm to comeback. As for Philadelphia it appears as if Connie Mack had picked up some good players, but he can scarcely expect to finish better than seventh."

Detroit, April.—Improvements made in the grandstands at Navin field, home of the Detroit Americans have increased the seating capacity. The club will be better equipped for handling big Sunday crowds. The press stand has been moved from the front of the grandstand to the roof of the structure.

Detroit, April.—Tyrus Cobb, star of the Detroit Americans has suggested to Manager Jennings that the Tigers train on the East coast next spring.

Local Man Declares Tanlac Has Improved Him Every Way

GLAD TO TELL OTHERS

G. W. Corbridge Says Master Medicine Banished Troubles of Two Long Years

OFFERS FULL DETAILS

G. W. Corbridge, a well known local carpenter of 723 North Ashland avenue, declares Tanlac, the celebrated new medicine, has improved him in every respect.

"Yes sir, I'm better in most every way, since using this preparation," Mr. Corbridge said on April 9. "Two years ago I suffered an attack of paralysis and since that time my system generally has been in a run-down condition. My kidneys were so weak that I had to get up as often as seven or eight times during the night. Sharp, shooting pains in my chest and lungs caused me much suffering. I was so nervous that to get a good night's sleep was almost impossible. I'd wake up at all hours of the night, I was so restless."

"I read about Tanlac in the Jacksonville papers and finally decided to try the new medicine. I could almost feel Tanlac doing its good work. It's hard to believe, but I never have to get up during the night any more on account of my kidneys. I'm not so nervous, either and don't wake up at all hours of the night as I did before using Tanlac. The sharp, shooting pains in my chest and lungs are much less severe."

"I think Tanlac is a fine medicine and I'm glad to tell others about it."

"There is no season of the year when Tanlac can be taken to so good an advantage as right now," the Tanlac Man said yesterday. "All mankind, after weathering the storms of winter is in need of an uplifting tonic. Tanlac has proven surprisingly effective in relieving after effects of la grippe, pneumonia, severe coughs and colds and is fine for catarrhal affections of the stomach, liver and kidneys."

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co., in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co., in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's and in Versailles at A. G. Bates' drug store.—Adv.

ACIDS IN STOMACH SOUR THE FOOD AND CAUSE INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Fixes Sour, Gassy Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes

You don't know what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, do not bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin to neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened, and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quick-est, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it stops food souring and sets things straight so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Your stomach will digest your meals if you keep acids neutralized.—Adv.

JAPAN MENACED BY AMERICAN AMBITION

Is Declaration of Renowned Japanese Who Says That Militarism and Pan-Asianism is Only Cure for Country's Internal and External Troubles

Tokio, April.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Militarism and pan-Asianism are the only two possible means to cure Japan's internal and external troubles, declares the Rev. Kozui Otani, renowned thru the Far East as the former Lord A-bot of the famous Nishi Honganji temple at Kioto and director of millions of Buddhist believers. His personal influence lends interest to his article which appears in the Central Review. He writes:

"The future menace to Japan will come from the United States and China. What most concerns the Japanese in the United States is the proposed expansion of the American navy. It is directed against Japan or is meant to menace Japan."

"How far-reaching the American ambition in the Orient is can be seen from the protest which the United States is raising against the Japanese occupation of the former German possession in the South Pacific. The Americans, who saw no danger in the German occupation of the islands, cry that Japan's occupation of them is a menace to their colonies, the Philippines and Guam. What does this all mean? The Americans know that Japan's occupation of these islands is not a menace because they know that if the Japanese really mean to fight they can do it without a footing in these small islands. They know all this yet they cry that Japan's occupation is dangerous to the United States. This is unmistakably a kind of disgrace to the Japanese nation. American ambition in Asia is indeed menacing the very existence of the Japanese empire."

SUBMARINE ACTIVITY RESTRICTS TRAVEL

Hongkong, April.—Travel between China and Europe virtually has become impossible either by rail or by sea. All the Entente powers are discouraging travellers as much as possible. Passports will not be issued to persons who are not actually forced to make the trip to Europe. Even the wives and families of the men at the front are denied permission to go to Europe. The British legation in Peking and other Entente legations have advised their citizens that traveling is a handicap to the successful conduct of the war, and permission to leave the Orient will not be granted to persons unless special reasons are advanced.

Americans who had planned to visit India, Siam and the East Indies are abandoning their trips and returning to the United States because the withdrawal of Entente ships and passport restrictions has made travel to those countries difficult.

Consequently, steamers sailing from Chinese and Japanese ports for America are crowded with tourists who are hurrying home thru the fear that even Pacific ocean travel may be affected by submarine activities.

Buy your seed, plant your garden now. This year you want a full crop. That means good seed. BRADY BROS. have it; also the best garden tools.

MEXICAN ARMY TO BE ORGANIZED

Mexico City, March.—It has been announced here that a reorganization plan will be placed in effect in the Mexican army. By this plan the army corps of the north, southeast, east and southwest will be abolished and the army redivided into divisions and brigades. This will tend to bring the army units more closely under the direct orders of the Secretary of War.

The pay of the Mexican soldiers has been increased so that privates now receive about fifty cents a day. Out of his pay the Mexican soldier must feed himself.

EXPLOIT LIMESTONE MARL.

Maasricht, Netherlands, April.—What gold was to the Californian Forty-Niners, limestone marl is, on a smaller scale, to the inhabitants of southern Limburg. Claims are being staked, deals in "rights" are plentiful on the "marl exchange" and everyone who owns a few square yards of land is busy picking his little marl mine, if he has nothing more to do than a pickaxe, a spade and a hand barrow. In short, every Limburger has caught the marl fever, and talks about nothing else.

South Limburg is rich in limestone marl, a mixture of calcium carbonate and clay, which occurs in the form of rock marl, ordinary marl and loess marl. Up to the outbreak of the war only the rock marl was used, being quarried for building material. Since the beginning of the war it has been found that the loess marl is valuable as a fertilizer and useful in the cardboard industry, the manufacture of glass, and in the sugar and cement industries. When the hitherto despised marl suddenly took on the guise of potential gold, and its exploitation soon assumed large proportions.

Then, and only then, can you decide intelligently whether or not you ought to own it.

D. A. R. POLITICS ACTIVE

Washington, D. C., April 14.—

Everything is in readiness for the entertainment of the twenty-sixth continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which is to begin its regular sessions here Monday. With hundreds of delegates already crowding the hotels, mere man promises to be an insignificant creature in Washington for a week to come.

This is election year with the Daughters and today things are boiling politically around the hotels where the various candidates for officers have established their headquarters.

Most interest centers in the contest for the office of president-general, now held by Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York, who is ineligible for re-election. Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey of Kansas, who was defeated for the office two years ago by Mrs. Story, is again in the field. The contest two years ago was bitter, but the indications are that the present struggle will far surpass the preceding contest in that respect. The election will take place Thursday.

In addition to Mrs. Guernsey, three other candidates for president-general are waging active campaigns. They are Mrs. George O. Squire of St. Paul, Mrs. John Miller Horton of Buffalo, who was an unsuccessful candidate four years ago, and Mrs.

J. Hamilton Lewis, wife of the Illinois senator.

The supporters of Mrs. Guernsey claim she has more than enough delegates pledged to insure her election. They predict that one or more of the opposing candidates will withdraw from the race before the day of the election.

Formally organized twenty-seven years ago by a handful of women, the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution today enrolls nearly 100,000 active members. It has chapters in every state in the Union, and in Cuba, China, Mexico and the Philippines. The society is in perfect working order and has already organized its members for relief and other work to aid the nation in the present great struggle.

The preservation of the spirit of true Americanism has always been the foremost object of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It makes a cult of American history and traditions. In the story of the women of the Revolution it interests itself particularly. The heroes of '76 have never been forgotten, but that the heroines may live equally in the memories of posterity their daughters of today have pledged themselves.

The society deals in something more than promises. It contributed largely to the statue of Gen. Washington contributed to France by the American people. Its membership engaged in active relief work during the war with Spain. The society has made a very valuable collection of books and relics relating to the early history of the republic. It has erected in this city a monumental edifice to serve as the national headquarters of the society and a center of patriotism.

On the roll of honor of those who died were Captain Archibald Butt, aide to President William H. Taft; John Jacob Astor and Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Straus all of New York; Henry B. Harris, the theatrical magnate; William T. Stead, world famous as a journalist; Jacques Futrell, the American author, and F. D. Millet, the celebrated artist.

FIVE YEARS SINCE

TITANIC DISASTER

New York, April 14.—Five years ago today, at 11:30 p. m., occurred the greatest single disaster at sea ever known up to that time—a ship, the pride of the world's marine, sunk on her maiden trip by contact with an iceberg and carrying down with her a large number of passengers—among them some of the best known men and women in the world—together with a cargo worth millions of dollars.

The ship was the newest White Star liner Titanic, which, with her bulwarks and construction safeguards that made her "unsinkable," had gone to the bottom off the banks of Newfoundland with over 1,500 of her passengers and crew.

MEATLESS DAYS FOR BRITISH.

London, April 14.—Alas and alack, for the good old days "before the war" when a barrow of beef daily graced the dinner table of John Bull. Beginning next week there is to be one meatless day out of every seven for all persons in the United Kingdom who take their meals at hotels, restaurants, boarding houses or clubs. The new order has been promulgated by Baron Devonport, the British food controller. The controller has also ordered that no potatoes or food containing potatoes shall be allowed, except on meatless days and on Fridays. In London the meatless day will be Tuesday. Elsewhere in the British Isles it will be Wednesday. The restrictions are expected to result in a saving of 65 per cent of the meat now consumed.

Manager Joe Finker, the Columbus American association team, is enthusiastic over the line showing of his new twirler, Pitcher Earhardt. The line hitting of Wallie Pipp in the practice games indicates a likely repetition of last season's home-run wallowing by the Yankee slugger.

In the Sporting World

Minneapolis, Minn., April.—Carl Wallace, track captain at the University of Minnesota and Wingate Anderson, assistant manager of Athletics, will take examinations in Chicago for lieutenantcies in the United States marine corps.

Minneapolis, Minn., April.—The University of Minnesota's position relative to the abandonment of spring athletics because of the German situation will be decided at an early meeting of the board of regents, according to Fred B. Snyder, president of the board. Thus far, the board has not considered cancelling the sporting program, Mr. Snyder said.

Columbus, O., April.—The Board of Trustees of Ohio State University, has decided not to interfere with the university sport program "unless the international situation indicates a need for such action." The board empowered the faculty to order the cessation of athletics at any time.

Iowa City, Iowa, April.—Unless concerted action is taken by all universities in the "Big Nine," the State University of Iowa will not drop its spring athletic schedule because of the war, B. J. Lambert, chairman of the athletic board announced.

Columbus, O., April.—Joseph B. Tinker, president and manager of the Columbus club of the American Association, is ready to sink every penny he has to keep the team going if the United States becomes seriously involved in war.

"If it comes to a show down," Tinker said, "we'll go as far as we can and then close our park and pay the rent out of our pockets."

Tinker does not believe that the present situation will cause attendance in the American Association to decline.

Cincinnati, O., April.—Sammy Sandow, a Cincinnati bantamweight boxer, wants to become a soldier but he's having a hard time trying to enlist. Sandow offered his services at a recruiting station, but was informed that he was too short. Then he bought a pair of shoes with high heels and sought another office. All went well until the examining physician asked him to remove his shoes.

St. Louis, Mo., April.—Because of the war situation, the St. Louis soccer team has cancelled its scheduled trip to Sweden for a series of games. The eleven was to have been made up of local players. Winton Barker, president of the Missouri State Football association, had completed all negotiations for the trip.

Cleveland, April.—Sergeant D. W. Dennis, U. S. A., drill master of the Cleveland Americans, commands the respect of every player on the squad. The reason: Dennis weighs 220 pounds, is six feet, two inches tall and has the reputation of being able to whip his weight in wild cats.

Cincinnati, O., April.—Cincinnati athletes are forming a regiment as a unit of the Ohio National Guard. Harry B. Lewis, physical director at the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A., captain of a company, First Ohio Infantry, is at the head of the movement.

Waxahatchie, Texas, April.—Before Harry Tuthill, coach of the Detroit Americans started north with the team, he told friends here that military drills are not harmful to ball players. The Detroit squad was, at first, divided on the question but the players later became more enthusiastic. They quickly mastered the simple drills, and the more complicated evolutions which they will go through at ball parks every afternoon, were more to their liking.

"The players do not get enough of the exercises to tie up their muscles," said Tuthill. "The setting up exercises are excellent. It is my hope that we have them every spring."

Columbia, Mo., April.—The date for the fourteenth annual state interscholastic contests at the University of Missouri has been set for May 5. The high and preparatory schools will be divided into three classes, the high schools being differentiated as to enrollment under or above 350 and the preparatory groups forming the third group. The meet will be preceded on Friday by the "Farmers Fair," the annual "stunt" of the agricultural college students and on Saturday morning by the dual meet between Ames, Iowa State College and the university track teams.

Cleveland, April.—There will be six powerful teams in the American league pennant drive in the opinion of Lee Fohl, manager of the Cleveland club. Cleveland, he believes will be among the six. Fohl does not think that Washington and Philadelphia will catch fire.

"Making predictions as to how the teams will finish is not in my line and this is one year in which it would be foolish for me to start anything," Fohl said. "I think, however, that it will be one of the hardest fought campaigns in the history of the league."

"My reason for believing that Cleveland will be up in the race is because the team looks so much stronger than a year ago. I am not an alibi manufacturer. We had accidents in 1916. So did the other teams."

"We have a strong pitching staff. Merion is going to cause a surprise by his comeback and I am most emphatic in saying that I am banking on Joe Wood to hold up his end of the pitching."

"I shall make no effort to say how the teams will finish. Six powerful teams are in the circuit and every game should

G. W. Corbridge Says Master Medicine Banished Troubles of Two Long Years

OFFERS FULL DETAILS

G. W. Corbridge, a well known local carpenter of 723 North Ashland avenue, declares Tanlac, the celebrated new medicine, has improved him in every respect.

"Yes sir, I'm better in most every way, since using this preparation," Mr. Corbridge said on April 9. "Two years ago I suffered an attack of paralysis and since that time my system generally has been in a rundown condition. My kidneys were so weak that I had to get up as often as seven or eight times during the night. Sharp, shooting pains in my chest and lungs caused me much suffering. I was so nervous that to get a good night's sleep was almost impossible. I'd wake up at all hours of the night, I was so restless."

"I read about Tanlac in the Jacksonville papers and finally decided to try the new medicine. I could almost feel Tanlac doing its good work. It's hard to believe, but I never have to get up during the night any more on account of my kidneys. I'm not so nervous, either and don't wake up at all hours of the nights as I did before using Tanlac.
The sharp, shooting pains in my chest and lungs are much less severe."

"I think Tanlac is a fine medicine and I'm glad to tell others about it."

"There is no season of the year when Tanlac can be taken to so good an advantage as right now," the Tanlac Man said yesterday. "All mankind, after weathering the storms of winter is in need of an upbuilding tonic. Tanlac has proven surprisingly effective in relieving after effects of la grippe, pneumonia, severe coughs and colds and is fine for cas-tarrhal affections of the stomach, liver and kidneys."

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co., in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co., in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's and in Versailles at A. G.
Bates' drug store.—Adv.

ACIDS IN STOMACH SOUR THE FOOD AND CAUSE INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Fixes Sour, Gassy
Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes

You don't know what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, do not bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour, head dizzy and aches;
belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin to neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.
Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened, and they eat their favorite foods
without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion;
if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only five cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it stops food souring and sets things straight so gently and easily that it is really astounding. Your stomach will digest your meals if you keep acids neutralized.—Adv.

JAPAN MENACED BY AMERICAN AMBITION

Is Declaration of Renowned Japanese Who Says That Militarism and Pan-Asianism Is Only Cure for Country's Internal and External Troubles

Tokio, April — (Correspondence of The Associated Press) — Militarism and pan-Asianism are the only two possible means to cure Japan's internal and external troubles declares the Rev. Kozui Otani, renowned thru the Far East as the former Lord Abbot of the famous Nishi Honganji temple at Kyoto and director of millions of Buddhist believers. His personal influence lends interest to his article which appears in the Central Review. He writes:

"The future menace to Japan will come from the United States and China. What most concerns the Japanese in the United States is the proposed expansion of the American navy. It is directed against Japan or is meant to menace Japan."

"How far-reaching the American ambition in the Orient is can be seen from the protest which the United States is raising against the Japanese occupation of the former German possession in the South Pacific.
The Americans, who saw no danger in the German occupation of the Islands, cry that Japan's occupation of them is a menace to their colonies, the Philippines and Guam. What does this all mean? The Americans know that Japan's occupation of these islands is not a menace because they know that if the Japanese really mean to fight they can do it without a footing in these small Islands. They know all this yet they cry that Japan's occupation is dangerous to the United States. This is unmistakably a kind of disgrace to the Japanese nation. American ambition in Asia is indeed menacing the very existence of the Japanese empire."

SUBMARINE ACTIVITY RESTRICTS TRAVEL

Hongkong, April — Travel between China and Europe virtually has become impossible either by rail or by sea. All the Entente powers are discouraging travellers as much as possible. Passports will not be issued to persons who are not actually forced to make the trip to Europe. Even the wives and families of the men at the front are denied permission to go to Europe. The British legation in Peking and other Entente legations have advised their citizens that traveling is a handicap to the successful conduct of the war, and permission to leave the Orient will not be granted to persons unless special reasons are advanced.

Americans who had planned to visit India, Siam and the East Indies are abandoning their trips and returning to the United States because the withdrawal of Entente ships and passport restrictions has made travel to those countries difficult.

Consequently, steamers sailing from Chinese and Japanese ports for America are crowded with tourists who are hurrying home thru the fear that even Pacific ocean travel may be affected by submarine activities.

Buy your seed, plant your garden now. This year you want a full crop. That means good seed. BRADY BROS. have it; also the best garden tools.

MEXICAN ARMY TO BE ORGANIZED

Mexico City, March — It has been announced here that a reorganization plan will be placed in effect in the Mexican army. By this plan the army corps of the north, southeast, east and southwest will be abolished and the army redivided into divisions and brigades. This will tend to bring the army units more closely under the direct orders of the Secretary of War.

The pay of the Mexican soldiers has been increased so that privates
now receive about fifty cents a day.
Out of his pay the Mexican soldier must feed himself.

EXPLOIT LIMESTONE MARL

Maasricht, Netherlands, April—
What gold was to the Californian Forty-Niners, limestone marl is, on a smaller scale, to the inhabitants of southern Limburg. Claims are being staked, deals in "rights" are plentiful on the "marl exchange" and everyone who owns a few square yards of land is busy picking his little marl mine, if he has nothing more to do than a pickaxe, a spade and a hand barrow. In short, every Limburger has caught the marl fever, and talks about nothing else.

South Limburg is rich in limestone marl, a mixture of calcium carbonate and clay, which occurs in the form of rock marl, ordinary marl and loose marl. Up to the outbreak of the war only the rock marl was used, being quarried for building material. Since the beginning of the war it has been found that the loose marl is valuable as a fertilizer and useful in the cardboard industry the manufacture of glass, and in the sugar and cement industries. When the hitherto despised marl suddenly took on the guise of potential gold, and its exploitation soon assumed large proportions.

CORNELL MEN FOR SERVICE

Ithaca, N. Y., April 14—Cornell's first contribution toward the defense of the nation, as represented by a student body of more than thirty men, leaves today to engage in ambulance service. Plans for the formation of a student regiment of 1,200 men are already well under way. More than a thousand of the students intend to join some branch of the United States service. Many have signified their intention to enter the mosquito fleet for naval coast defense.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sturdy of Lynnville were city callers yesterday.

nic—News Notes of the Neighborhood.

Thursday was the final day of the term at Pleasant Grove school, and the teacher and pupils, together with parents and friends, assembled at the school house for a picnic. At the noon hour a bountiful lunch was served, the menu including a host of good things to eat. Needless to say, this feature of the occasion was thoroly enjoyed by those present.
Miss Frances Kennedy, the teacher, had engaged a Jacksonville photographer to be on hand to make a picture of the group. The day was one of great pleasure for all.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

President Barker is in Chicago attending a meeting of the Chicago Association of the Woman's College. The Chicago Association is one of the strongest, and a very large attendance at the annual meeting is expected.

Much interest is being manifested in the Red Cross work which the students are now organizing. Miss Florence McCloud of Williamsport,
Ind., is president of the association.

According to the government regulations the wireless apparatus has been completely dismantled. Mr.
Wackert, who holds amateur license has been engaged the past few days in seeing that the regulations were carried out in regard to the other stations throughout this vicinity.

The marble for the shower bath stalls in the new gymnasium has been shipped and is expected in the city within a few days. This will practically complete the work in the new building, so that it should be ready for use very shortly. In all probability the Dramatic Club will open the gymnasium with a group of three one act plays. This dedication service will be in the nature of a benefit. The proceeds of which will be used to buy additional equipment.

Monday evening in Music Hall at 8:15 o'clock will occur a recital given by the advanced pupils in the school of expression. The work of this department this year is especially high grade and all friends of the school and especially those who are interested in expression are cordially invited to be present. Admission is free.

The Des Moines Association of Fine Arts has asked Miss Knopf for the loan of her canvas "In Autumn" for an exhibition to be held in the Des Moines Art Gallery during August and September. This picture is one of those which Miss Knopf exhibited during February at the Chicago Art Institute with the Chicago
Artists' exhibition.

Helen Baker of Jacksonville has recently enrolled in the School of Fine Arts.

TO HUNT WILD BURROS

Mexico City, April—A concession has been asked of the Department of Fomento to hunt the wild burros of ros which cannot be domesticated and which do much damage to crops.

D. A. R. POLITICS ACTIVE

Washington, D. C., April 14—
Everything is in readiness for the entertainment of the twenty-sixth continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which is to begin its regular sessions here Monday. With hundreds of delegates already crowding the hotels, mere man promises to be an insignificant creature in Washington for a week to come.

This is election year with the Daughters and today things are boiling politically around the hotels where the various candidates for office have established their headquarters.

Most interest centers in the contest for the office of president-general, now held by Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York, who is ineligible for re-election. Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey of Kansas, who was defeated for the office two years ago by Mrs. Story, is again in the field. The contest two years ago was bitter, but the indications are that the present struggle will far surpass the preceding contest in that respect. The election will take place Thursday.

In addition to Mrs. Guernsey, three other candidates for president-general are waging active campaigns.
They are Mrs. George O. Squire of St. Paul, Mrs. John Miller Horton of Buffalo, who was an unsuccessful candidate four years ago, and Mrs.

J. Hamilton Lewis, wife of the Illinois senator.

The supporters of Mrs. Guernsey claim she has more than enough delegates pledged to insure her election. They predict that one or more of the opposing candidates will withdraw from the race before the day of the election.

Formally organized twenty-seven years ago by a handful of women,
the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution today enrolls nearly 100,000 active members. It has chapters in every state in the Union, and in Cuba,
China, Mexico and the Philippines.
The society is in perfect working order and has already organized its members for relief and other work to aid the nation in the present great struggle.

The preservation of the spirit of true Americanism has always been the foremost object of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It makes a cult of American history and traditions. In the story of the women of the Revolution it interests itself particularly. The heroes of '76 have never been forgotten, but that the heroines may live equally in the memories of posterity their daughters of today have pledged themselves.

The society deals in something more than promises. It contributed largely to the statue of Gen. Washington contributed to France by the American people. Its membership engaged in active relief work during the war with Spain. The society has made a very valuable collection of books and relics relating to the early history of the republic.

It has erected in this city a monumental edifice to serve as the national headquarters of the society and a center of patriotism.

FIVE YEARS SINCE

TITANIC DISASTER

New York, April 14—Five years ago today, at 11:30 p. m., occurred the greatest single disaster at sea ever known up to that time—a ship,
the pride of the world's marine, sunk on her maiden trip by contact with an iceberg and carrying down with her a large number of passengers—among them some of the best known men and women in the world—together with a cargo worth millions of dollars.

The ship was the newest White Star liner Titanic, which, with her bulwarks and construction safeguards that made her "unsinkable," had gone to the bottom off the banks of Newfoundland with over 1, 600 of her passengers and crew.

On the roll of honor of those who died were Captain Archibald Butt, aide to President William H. Taft;
John Jacob Astor and Mr. and Mrs.
Isidor Straus all of New York; Henry
B. Harris, the theatrical magnate; William T. Stead, world famous as a journalist; Jacques Futrelle, the American author, and F. D. Millet, the celebrated artist.

MEATLESS DAYS FOR BRITISH

London, April 14—Alas and alack, for the good old days "before the war" when a baron of beef daily graced the dinner table of John Bull.
Beginning next week there is to be one meatless day out of every seven for all persons in the United Kingdom who take their meals at hotels, restaurants, boarding houses or clubs. The new order has been promulgated by Baron Devonport, the British food controller. The controller has also ordered that no potatoes or food containing potatoes shall be allowed, except on meatless days and on Fridays. In London the meatless day will be Tuesday. Elsewhere in the British Isles it will be Wednesday. The restrictions are expected to result in a saving of 65 per cent of the meat now consumed.

ness matters and visiting friends.

ENGLISH HONOR MEMORY OF AMERICAN ARTIST

Unveil Tablet to Memory of Edwin Austin Abbey, Who Painted Coronation of King Edward.

London, April.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Many distinguished people forgot the stress of war for at least an hour the other day to repair to St. Paul's Cathedral to pay tribute to the memory of an American artist, Edwin Austin Abbey, who through his work has been more or less closely identified with the artistic side of English life.

The gathering was headed by the American Ambassador, Walter Hines Page and the Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll. It assembled in the artist's corner of the crypt where are the graves of Turner and many more distinguished English artists, and unveiled a tablet to the memory of Abbey. It was here that Abbey used to visit.

Ambassador Page delivered the principal speech, sketching Abbey's career from his birthplace, Philadelphia. "Mr. Abbey's grandfather," said Mr. Page, "who was a merchant in Philadelphia, amused himself with his pencil and brush, and his father also a merchant, cultivated the same talent. Once when Mr. Abbey was asked how he got the commission for painting the coronation of King Edward, he is said to have answered:

"Through my grandfather." The ambassador said that Mr. Abbey spent twenty years on the staff of a New York publishing house. "When he came to England he had a commission also to illustrate an article on Shakespeare," said Mr. Page. "For all I know to the contrary project of illustrating Shakespeare may date from that first visit to the poet's birthplace. From that day forward England took him and held him."

"Abbey's work fell into two parts, first, his illustrative work, beginning in his youth with Dickens' Christmas Stories, and including Herrick, Keats, Wordsworth, Goldsmith and ending with his great illustrations of Shakespeare. He was surely one of the greatest illustrators of his time. It was upon these black and white drawings that no doubt most of the admirers of his work think that his most secure fame rests."

"The second period of Mr. Abbey's work was given to mural painting for the embellishing and beautifying of American public buildings. On this work he was engaged when he died in 1911 at the too early age of 59. With appropriateness his decorations of the Boston Public Library represent scenes from the Quest of the Holy Grail. Throughout the United States you will find more reproductions of these pictures and of Mr. Sargent's prophets in the same building than of any other modern paintings."

"In happier times, when thousands of Abbey's countrymen resume their pilgrimages to their old home, many of them will feel a warmer welcome to this, one of the great Sanctuaries of our race, because of its hospitality to him; and they will thank you for placing this tablet here as I thank you now. It is another link in the endless chain that binds all parts of the English-speaking world together and will forever hold them true to their common high ideals."

WOMEN TO DRIVE TAXICABS

London, April.—As no applications for licenses to drive taxicabs are now received from men, women are trying the long examination which is conducted by Scotland Yard detectives. The police issue 450 questions, dealing with a knowledge of London, its streets, theatres, clubs, public buildings, hospitals and hotels. An intelligent woman might be able to pass the test after two months training.

STRUCTURE OF THE EYE.

Why We See Better in a Moderate Than in a Glaring Light.

An observant chauffeur, passing an automobile with glaring headlights, noted that objects at the side of the road which had been distinctly visible dropped out of sight when the bright lights were thrown upon them. Since one can see better in a little light than in no light, he wondered, why can one not see better in bright light than in moderate light?

The answer is, paradoxically, that the less light there is the better one sees, for the brighter the object the less efficient is the eyesight. If, after we have been in darkness, we suddenly turn on a bright light and look at our eyes in a mirror we can see the pupil of the eye rapidly growing smaller. If we reduce the light the pupil dilates again. What happens is the same as in the camera when we adjust the shutter to the intensity of the light.

The colored iris of the eye corresponds to the shutter. It consists chiefly of a muscle which, as the light increases, is stimulated to contract, thus drawing the curtain and shutting out some of the superfluous light. It usually takes a few seconds for this adjustment to take place. Thus when we emerge from darkness into light we are blinded until the iris can shut out some of the light from the eyes.

A WHITE HOUSE DINNER.

Dishes President Jefferson Served to His Guests in 1802.

Manasseh Cutler, the founder of the Ohio colony and father of the ordinance of 1787, kept a diary all through his public life, and it is now in the possession of Charles G. Dawes. It contains an account of a dinner at the White House given by President Jefferson Feb. 6, 1802, to which Mr. Cutler and six members of the house were invited.

Mr. Cutler wrote that there was "rice soup, round of beef, turkey, mutton, ham, loin of veal, cutlets of mutton or veal, fried eggs, fried beef, a pie called macaroni, which appears to be a rich crust filled with stricklins of onions or shallots, which I took it to be; tasted very strong and not agreeable."

"Mr. Lewis told me there were no onions in it; it was an Italian dish, and what appeared like onions was made of flour and butter with a particularly strong liquor mixed with them. Ice cream, very good; crust wholly dried, crumbled into thin flakes, a dish somewhat like pudding, inside white as milk or curd, very porous and light, covered with cream sauce; very fine."

"Many other fimebacks, a great variety of fruit, plenty of wines and good. President social. We drank tea."—Columbus Dispatch.

Americans' Physical Development.

While this country may excel in a competition of trained athletes or in certain kinds of mental ingenuity or shrewdness, it is certain that the average man is far from a model of perfect physical development. A casual inspection of the crowds on the streets of any one of our large cities will reveal pale, undernourished and poorly developed youths and pasty, flabby men in large numbers and will convince the open minded observer of the desirability for the individual of some form of regular physical training. That the country bred, moreover, are not greatly superior to those brought up in the city has been the experience of most military men who have had occasion to handle large numbers of troops.—New York Medical Record.

Lieutenant General.

Many of us are puzzled to know why a lieutenant general ranks higher than a major general. Perhaps the explanation is that the titles date back to the commonwealth, when the country was divided into military districts, the less important under the control of a sergeant major general, the rank beyond that of colonel, and the more important being governed by a lieutenant general, the captain general being Cromwell himself. The lapse of time has deleted the sergeant from the sergeant major general.—London Chronicle.

Ocean Currents.

There are twenty-seven permanent currents in the oceans of the world, and there are nearly as many more of the semi-permanent variety existing at one time. Several causes tend to originate and maintain these drifts. Uniformly directed winds have the greatest influence, and differences of temperatures, storms, polar ice and eddies have each some effect, creating usually the currents of semi-permanent variety.

What Life Is.

Life is not made out of money, and friendship, and talents, and patronage, and family influences, and good chances, and good positions, and good health, and good nature. It is made out of faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, and brotherly kindness and love.—Inniger.

The Real Reason.

Congressmen and legislators have not been lowered in grade during the last twenty years, but public understanding has moved up so much that it just seems that way.—Sioux City Tribune.

Wise and Unwise.

That is ever the difference between the wise and unwise, the latter wonders at what is unusual; the wise man wonders at the usual.—Emerson.

Clotheslines.

When the clothesline needs cleaning wrap it around the washboard and scrub it with a brush in soap suds.

MAVERICKS

Rumors of war and submarines have filled our hearts with fear. Now all such things are memories. For the baseball season is here.

We are wondering if the Hessian fly is an ally of Germany.

A St. Louis woman in her suit for divorce says her husband called her the German Kaiser. We don't blame her for asking for separation.

There is one pledge that the democratic platform made in 1912 about reducing the high cost of living that seems to have been lost sight of in the war talk of the present.

Perhaps the government is going to release the married men from service so their wives can support them instead of the government supporting the wives.

According to his sworn statement James McNabb of Carrollton is publisher, editor, managing editor, business manager and one of the owners of the Carrollton Gazette. Mr. McNabb ought to be a busy man with all of the positions on his hands.

We would like to have Dr. John Dill Robertson send down that forty cents a day men if the present prices keep up.

We note that a baseball umpire has enlisted in the navy. Even in case of actual war he probably will find things quiet when compared with his daily battles with two teams of belligerent ball players.

While the government is making other preparations for war it would seem one of the best things that could be done would be the suppression of the publication known as the "Viereck."

British military authorities have forbidden the sending of blankets to British in Germany but still send tooth paste. It is not known whether the tooth paste is intended as substitute for blankets or not.

If the present prices hold the government will not have to establish meatless days, they will establish themselves.

William J. Bryan has offered his services to President Wilson for whatever duty may be assigned him. We suggest that he be placed in the conversation corps.

Whatever else we may have said and thought about Theodore Roosevelt we must admit that he is a true American.

Probably those men who have been obtaining marriage licenses in Chicago thought they might as well learn to fight at home before joining the army.

AN OPERATION AVERTED

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I soon noticed a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only too glad to let other women know of my cure."—Mrs. THOS. MCGONIGAL, 3432 Hartville Street, Phila., Pa.

U. S. MUST HAVE VAST SUM TO MEET WAR COSTS

Uncle Sam Has Various Means of Borrowing Money for Emergency Uses.

Washington, D. C., April 13.—Ways and means for keeping Uncle Sam's war chest constantly replenished has taken its place among the many big problems that the Government is called upon to solve in the present emergency. Most people know that it takes a great deal of money to wage war, but few have any adequate idea of how vast are the sums required. Fortunately, there is ample money in the United States at the present time to meet all requirements. The problem is how best to transfer the money into Uncle Sam's coffers in a way to prove less burdensome to the greatest number.

The formulation of tax measures for the war has not reached a definite stage, but there are indications that the treasury will endeavor to raise by one bond issue as much of the $3,500,000,000 already asked for as cannot be obtained by new and increased taxation.

A billion dollars in bonds seems a colossal amount, but as a matter of fact it would be but a drop in the bucket compared with what Uncle Sam has borrowed since he began business. The total amount of bonds sold by the government during the first century of its existence, or down to 1889, was in excess of $10,000,000,000, a sum which makes the mind dizzy and which would buy up a dozen of the small monarchies of Europe. Many of these bond issues up to that time were made to fund previous loans, but interest was paid on every one of these dollars, and the gold which has been spent in this way by Uncle Sam would gild all the great departments in Washington and leave enough to make a solid gold statue as large as that of the Goddess of Liberty which stands on the capitol dome.

The first issue of United States bonds to any considerable extent was made in 1790. It was found then that the indebtedness incurred by the Revolution was a matter of grave importance. The indebtedness was in many forms and on numerous accounts. Alexander Hamilton came to the front with a plan, which, after a long and heated debate in Congress was adopted. It was decided to fund the revolutionary debt by means of a bond issue. The bonds ran in three series, the bulk of them drawing 6 per cent interest, the total issue amounting to about $64,000,000. The scheme proved to be a success, and Hamilton lived to triumph over those who had opposed it.

In 1812 the Government was again compelled to borrow money, owing to the expense incurred in the second war with Great Britain. This time a loan of $1,000,000 was negotiated, stock being issued for the amount borrowed, and the revenue of the Government pledged for its payment. Other loans followed at intervals between this time and the beginning of the civil war.

It was in 1861 that the Government made the largest loan in its history up to that time. In consideration of the difficulties surrounding the situation and the critical conditions of the times, that negotiation may be classed as one of the signal feats in the financial history of the United States. Uncle Sam borrowed $150,000,000 on this deal. At that time the credit of the Government had become so impaired that a large loan could not be obtained in any ordinary way, nor even a small temporary loan, except for a very short period and at a high rate of interest. Before Congress adjourned in 1861 it conferred upon the secretary of the treasury greater power to contract a public debt than ever had been given to any of his predecessors. Early in August, immediately after adjournment, Secretary Chase hurried to New York to make a loan. A meeting of New York bankers was called. It was a memorable occasion, and the results of the conference then held were all important to the nation. Boston and Philadelphia bankers also were called into the conference. The plan finally adopted was that there should be an immediate issue of $50,000,000 of treasury notes to run three years at 7.3 per cent. The Government was to appeal to the people to subscribe to the notes, and the banks were to take them in proportion to their capital. The plan worked admirably and three issues of the notes were made.

From time to time since the civil war the Government has found it necessary to make large loans. The people have always responded readily, for they know that there is no better security in the world than a United States bond. The banks cry for them. Old maids sigh for them, and the timid capitalists are almost ready to die for them. Thousands of comparatively poor people will invest in the new bonds, knowing that their money will be safe and the interest will always be paid when it is due.

Senator Sheppard of Texas would have our National Congress pass a national prohibition bill as a protective measure, thereby securing our soldier boys against pernicious influences. This is a much needed measure in the present crisis, and its success is to be highly commended.

Every post office in France has the following statement and appeal upon its walls, which bears President Poincaré's signature:

"To French women and young Frenchmen: Drink is as much your enemy as Germany. Since 1890 it has cost France in men and money much more than the present war. Drinkers are quickly lost, lost both their life and fall easy victims to many infirmities and illness. The seductive drinks of your parents' generation in their offspring a great hereditary evil. France owes to alcohol many mad men and women, consumptives and most of her criminals. Drink decreases by two-thirds our national production. It raises the cost of living and increases poverty. Mothers, young men, and young girls, wives! Up and act against drink in memory of those who have gloriously died of suffering wounds for the Fatherland! You will accomplish thus a mission as great as that of our heroic soldiers."

Let us, as a nation, take heed and learn a great lesson, for like conditions ever bring about like results.

The victory for the pro-liquor legislators of Illinois will be a costly one, for already there has been launched a campaign for the election of members to the 199 legislature who will represent the real interests of the people, not the interests of the liquor dealers. With a determination that defies the possibility of defeat, the good people of Illinois will benevolently labor to wrest the legislature from the control and dictation of the allied liquor forces—and they will win!—The Union Signal.

"It is coming! the dawning of the day
When old Illinois can sing untrammelled;
"Oh! the brewers' big horses, comin'

Fattin' all round Old Lucifer's load—
Steppin' so high and steppin' so free,
But the brewers' big horses can't run over me!"

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

Illinois College recently received two interesting gifts from Hon. Frederick L. Fishback, of Washington, D. C. They are a picture of Congressman Wm. H. Springer, and a photographic reproduction of a poster issued by Mr. Springer and some of his student friends in connection with an old Junior Oratorical Contest. The sentiment expressed by Mr. Springer in his oration very short period and at a high rate of interest. Before Congress adjourned in 1861 it conferred upon the secretary of the treasury greater power to contract a public debt than ever had been given to any of his predecessors. Early in August, immediately after adjournment, Secretary Chase hurried to New York to make a loan. A meeting of New York bankers was called. It was a memorable occasion, and the results of the conference then held were all important to the nation. Boston and Philadelphia bankers also were called into the conference. The plan finally adopted was that there should be an immediate issue of $50,000,000 of treasury notes to run three years at 7.3 per cent. The Government was to appeal to the people to subscribe to the notes, and the banks were to take them in proportion to their capital. The plan worked admirably and three issues of the notes were made.

From time to time since the civil war the Government has found it necessary to make large loans. The people have always responded readily, for they know that there is no better security in the world than a United States bond. The banks cry for them. Old maids sigh for them, and the timid capitalists are almost ready to die for them. Thousands of comparatively poor people will invest in the new bonds, knowing that their money will be safe and the interest will always be paid when it is due.

It is planned to set out an oak tree on the campus in memory of the late Edward P. Kirby. The tree will be known as the Kirby oak.

The members of the girls' literary societies are planning to give early in May an out of door pageant, "The Dandelion Fete" for the benefit of the woman's building fund. The pageant has been arranged and the parts written by Mrs. Frances A. Humphrey. The training will be under the general direction of Miss Kates. Thru the kindness of the public school authorities a group of the younger children from the ward schools will constitute the pageant.

Rear Admiral C. B. T. Moore was entertained at luncheon at the home of President and Mrs. Baumgardner Friday.

WILL ELECTRIFY AIR TO MAKE CROPS GROW

Electricity as Substitute for Sunlight Suggested by Swedish Professor—England to Conduct Experiments.

London, April.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Experiments on a large scale with the use of electricity to stimulate the growing of food production, the stimulation of crops are among the government's latest efforts to increase the country's home food production. The department of agriculture has taken over a large area near Hereford, where installations have already been set up for the use of ionized air produced by an electric discharge from a system of thin wire. A staff of agricultural experts under Prof. W. H. Blackman of the Imperial College of Science and Technology, will supervise the experiments.

Proposals for the use of ionized air in agriculture have aroused interest in England for the past fifteen years, and some experiments have been conducted on a small scale but with inconclusive results. In the Hereford experiment, high tension alternating current is to be used. Spring wheat, barley, oats and clover will be dealt with, and fertilizers of various types will also be used.

The method adopted is to stretch over the field to be treated a number of thin wires, on poles, something like low telegraph wires, but high enough for loaded wagons to pass underneath. The wires are supported by high tension insulators on posts in long parallel spans thirty feet apart.

"The charge fizzes off from the wires," says one account, "with a sound which is sometimes audible, and with a glow which is visible in the dark. Anyone walking about below the wires can sometimes feel the effect on the hair of the head, as if of a cobweb on the face. The electricity does not act as a fertilizer but as a substitute for sunlight. The current is only used in the early morning and in cloudy weather." The initial cost of the apparatus for 24 acres is about $1,500 and the annual cost, including depreciation and labor is about $300.

The electrification of crops is said to have been first suggested by a Swedish professor named Lennstrom. While conducting experiments in his greenhouse with the object of producing an electrical discharge similar to the Aurora Borealis he noticed that the plants around seemed to thrive as a result of the electrification of the air.

SINGER HAS $125,000 HOME

New York, April 14.—Next to being a munition maker the quickest road to wealth in these days would seem to be that of a successful singer, especially one whose voice is suited for the machines that grind out the "canned music." Anyone who is inclined to doubt the truth of this statement might ask John McCormack, the celebrated tenor, who today takes possession of a country estate in Northern Conn., for which he recently paid $125,000. This sum is said to represent the amounts paid to the Irish Caruso in the past few years by the phonograph companies. In addition, the singer is said to possess another hundred thousand or so that has been paid by the American public with a fondness for hearing him warble the ballads of Old Erin. Mr. McCormack will probably add considerably more to his "pile," as he is still in his early thirties. It is scarcely a decade since he left his native Dublin and arrived in London virtually penniless, but possessed of a voice that soon won him recognition.

Mr. Clarence Radcliffe is in Jacksonville for a few days and will sing at the Christian church today.

DYE STOCK INCREASES IN VALUE

London, April.—The profits of the English dye manufacturers since the war are indicated by the fact that the stock of one dye company, which was quoted at $2 three years ago, now finds a ready sale at $300. A shareholder who was declared bankrupt before the war, and whose assets consisted solely of 700 pounds worth of stock in this company has paid all his debts in full after which the court handed over to him a cash balance of $5,000 pounds.

COMMEMORATE ANNIVERSARY.

The Hague, Netherlands, April.—Holland has just been commemorating in quiet fashion, the 25th anniversary of the day on which Dutch Guiana came into its possession. The commemoration is sober largely because, as is frankly recognized, there is little reason to jubilate over a colony whose depressed circumstances render it more or less of a burden. Of late signs of American interest have been noted with pleasure. Only a very small part of the large territory has been brought under cultivation, and the level of the development of the mass of the population is still very low. In this connection one leading Rotterdam journal utters a warning regarding the possibility of Dutch Guiana passing into other hands.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DORE HELD AT MANCHESTER

Large Company Attended Services Held For Well Known Resident—News Notes from Manchester.

Manchester, April 14.—Rev. Mark White, assisted by Rev. W. S. Clark conducted the funeral services of Mrs. Margaret L. Dore at the home of E. L. Maine here Friday at 1:30 P. M. Music was rendered by Mrs. J. H. Langdon, Mrs. Alice Wallis and M. W. Story. The great profusion of flowers was a beautiful testimony of her presence in the hearts of many loving friends, whose kindly graces had thrown about the last sad rites the symbol of her own beauty of character; the fragrance and sweetness of her life.

Interment was made in Manchester cemetery.

Those attending the funeral from out of town were: Mrs. Marcella Craig and Mrs. Emma Anthony of Woodson, Mrs. Kate Tunison of Jacksonville, Mrs. W. T. Knox and daughter Lucile and Mrs. W. S. Strang of White Hall.

Margaret L. Dore was born on the 25th day of July 1834 in the city of Wheeling, West Va., and died at her home in Manchester on the 11th day of April, 1917, aged 82 years, 8 months and 16 days.

When she was two years of age her parents, Thomas and Arabella Robinson came west and took up their residence in the village of Winchester, Ill.

Here she received her early training and education, and it is worthy of mention that among her close friends and neighbors were: Stephen Paxon, the prominent Sunday school worker; E. G. Miner, Mr. Pond and others. At the age of twelve years she removed with her parents and their family of four children, to Coal Hollow, half way between here and Winchester, where they bought coal land and made their future home.

At the end of six years of country life, on May 1st, 1852, she was married to Hosea Dore and came to Manchester to make her home where she has continuously lived. Here on Oct. 13, 1864, her husband died, leaving her with five children to train, educate and provide for and no one, but one who has passed thru this experience, can tell the worry and hardships that came to her during these years.

Of these children, Katherine, wife of J. C. McCracken of Lee Summit, Mo.; H. G. Dore of Lee Summit, Mo.; and John Dore of Richards, Mo., survive. May, wife of E. L. Maine, died on the 15th day of March, 1900 and Fred died in August 1871. There were nine grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

In the death of Mrs. Dore one of the most remarkable women has passed away. She was a wonderful reader and had a remarkable memory. She read the best books and kept in touch with the leading events of the day and without a moment's hesitation could give the leading facts of our country's history thru its troublesome times, especially during the civil war.

As to her religious life and belief—Although seldom attending church she was always an earnest inquirer as to its progress and needs. Her father, Thomas Robinson, Mr. E. J. Clark and Russell Ash were promoters of Old Shilo, where Mrs. Dore attended church and Sunday school in her girlhood days. Here she learned the scripture and often remarked that we of today did not enjoy the church and Sabbath school as she did when she was young. She could quote many of the scripture's sacred pages from memory and we believe the early knowledge of her Christ and His love never left her.

Personal Mention
Mrs. C. A. Schaffer and son Maine, of Duluth, Minn., came Thursday, called by the death of Mrs. Schaffer's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Dore. They will remain for an extended visit with Mrs. Schaffer's father, E. L. Maine.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS TODAY April 15

Governor Robert Livingston Beekman of Rhode Island, re-elected last November for a second term expiring in 1919, is 51 years old today. Gov. Beekman succeeded the Hon. Abram J. Potlier, the first citizen of French-Canadian birth ever elected governor of an American state, as chief executive of "Little Rhody" in January, 1915. A member of the summer colony at Newport, a member of the New York Stock Exchange and a scion of an old family of great wealth, Gov. Beekman represents the same element in politics as the new United States Senator from Rhode Island, the Hon. Peter Goelet Gerry. He began his political career in the state legislature in 1909, as a member of the house till 1912, when he entered the senate. In 1915 the Republicans gave him his first election as governor. He has proven an able, conscientious and popular executive. Aside from his gubernatorial duties, Gov. Beekman has large business interests, and is an official in several trusts. His wife has been long prominent in suffrage ranks. Representing his state, Gov. Beekman recently took part in the war conference of the governors of New England, held at Boston and called by Governor McCall of Massachusetts.
